DEAR READERS:

I want to thank each and every one of you for your thoughtful letters. I love reading each and every one of them. Time and space make it impossible for me to answer each one personally, but your likes and dislikes and your opinions are given careful consideration here at Tiger Beat. Whenever you have a suggestion, a criticism or just want to sound off about something, drop me a note. I love hearing from you!

INTERNATIONAL HOBBY

First of all, I love your magazine because it's so truthful. Secondly, I take French at school and I love anything French, especially Philippe Forquet! Please print more on him!

Dear Ann,

I have just finished reading TiGER BEAT Spectacular #3 and it was great! I loved all those pics of David. When I bought it I thought I knew almost everything there was to know about David, but I was wrong. There were lots of things I learned. Keep up the good work!

Dear Kathy,

Thanks for the nice words. If others are interested in seeing our next issue of TiGER BEAT Spectacular and getting in on all the action, see page 28!

BEWARE!

This letter is a warning to the next person who feels it necessary to insult one of my faves (Bobby, David, Jack, Frank) and others: POW! (And I do mean it!)

BEAUTIFUL PERSON

I went to an Elvis Presley concert awhile back, and to say the very least, the show was fantastic! During "Love Me Tender" a mother carried her crippled daughter up to the edge of the stage and lifted her up. As soon as Elvis saw her he walked over and bent down and kissed her. It was really a beautiful moment. I found out that after Elvis finished his shows he had a temperature of 102, and the weather during our show was 101 degrees, but he still went on. You see, Elvis loves his fans very much and it goes far beyond just trying to be nice and making people happy. That's just a small part of Elvis, and if that isn't love, what is?

Dear Ann,

There was something cute that happened concerning Jack Wild that I want to tell you about. I was in the car with my sister and her three kids. Her nine month old baby was sitting by me while I had my Jack Wild album on my lap. The baby started patting his face and then she bent down and kissed him! She knows what's cute and what isn't!

LOOKS LIKE A CASE OF DONNY-BUMPS!

DO THEY HURT?

I just simply adore Donny Osmond! Everytime I see him I get love bumps. And thanks for writing so much about him!

HIGH-CALORIE MUSIC

I love Bobby Sherman's new album "With Love, Bobby" and I love the song "Sweet Gingerbread Man" on it. Ever since I bought the record and listened to the song, I've had this terrible craving for gingerbread! I love the song, but it sure doesn't do much for my weight!

MANY THANKS

The greatest thing you have done for me is print David Cassidy's story about when he quit smoking. I'm 18 and a nicotine fiend. I've tried to quit before but it just was impossible. But now everytime I look at a picture of David I say "If he can do it, so can I" and then I don't want a cigarette. I have a little advice: If you smoke you should quit and if you don't smoke, keep it that way. Take it from an experienced smoker. It's a rotten habit.

P.S. Thank you, David!

SAVED MY LIFE!

In your January 1971 Tiger Beat, you had an article on David Cassidy quitting smoking. I guess I could go as far as to say he saved my life. I'll explain: Some friends of mine tried to get me to smoke and I started. The other day I read about David and the way he described being free, I decided to join his generation—the unhooked generation. Please thank David for me. He made me realize, more than anybody, what smoking really does. I had been smoking for two years so you can see what that article meant to me! Thanks, again.

Love,
 Susan Howard

Dear Ann,

I want to thank you for "The Secret of David Cassidy." Is it ever super! I learned all about his life and melted when I looked at those gorgeous pictures! Also, your service was great—I received it 3 weeks after I sent away for it! Please tell all TiGER BEAT readers not to miss it!
