EXCLUSIVE

Each month read all the fan club news about the Partridge Family right here in Cecelia Bonaduce's column!

Anyone in the mood for some good old fashioned Partridge news? Well, let's put it this way... sit down and read some good old fashioned Partridge news, because I've spent three weeks gathering it together!

Danny, Susan and I went to visit Dave Madden at his home in Malibu recently. He lives atop a palisade overlooking the Pacific... or if you prefer he lives on a cliff and can see the water. Late in the afternoon, Dave suggested that we take a walk on the beach. Being nature lovers, one and all, the four of us headed out the back door. What a view! Rolling green hills, the blue water below, 200 stone steps leading to the beach... What did you say, Dave?... We have to climb down 200 stone steps?... You wouldn't kid about a thing like that, would you?... You wouldn't.

I thought I'd never make it! Every time we'd get around a corner there'd be more steps... and more steps... and more steps. You would not believe the pain one has in his legs while climbing 200 steps. Also, walking back up those 200 steps is even less fun!

During a break in filming, Susan Dey went back to New York. Before she left however, the Bonaduce's had a surprise Bon Voyage party in her honor. We had a devil of a time trying to keep it a secret. Mrs. Bonaduce planned on Susan going out with a friend to play tennis. One slight problem though... the tennis courts were flooded. But never fear! The party was not destroyed. Instead of ruining the surprise, her friend told her that he was planning on moving, and decided to look at two hours worth of model homes!

David Cassidy was at the party, and I asked him about any future plans. David said that he was making arrangements for a singing tour, and also that he was busy writing music.

Jeremy and his family are spending their time away from the Partridges set in Washington, D.C. The Gelbwaks will be back in town by the time the Partridges are ready to start shooting again.

Suzanne Crough is back in "regular school" and is loving every minute of it. Suzanne really did miss her friends while working.

Q. Dear Cecelia,

I read your column each month and it's great, so keep up the good work.

Well, the real reason I wrote is because of the Partridge Fan Club. You see, I joined seven weeks ago and I haven't received anything yet. I'm not blaming you, but I was wondering how long it would take? I sure hope my money got there.

I'll let you go now, 'cause I'm sure you have lots to keep you busy.

Thanks,
Becky Meadows

A. Dear Becky,

Tiger Beat and FaVE have had an overwhelming response to the Partridge Fan Club. We've received more orders than we anticipated, and so new orders had to be drawn up. You should receive your Partridge kit shortly. Don't give up hope, the orders go out as fast as possible. Thanks for your cooperation and understanding!

Q. Dear Cecelia,

I guess you think this is really strange, but I met you in a store once and you really seemed like a nice person. Well, I wrote to a famous person
