All those in favor of Chinese food raise their hands . . . if you were on the Partridge set last week, you would have seen ALL the hands go up! It seems that everybody in the cast and crew on stage thirty loves Chinese food! So, last Friday night, after completing a rather difficult Partridge episode, the Partridge people had a Chinese Dinner Party!

The buffet table was set up at one end of the studio, and the beverages were set up at the other end. When you entered the sound stage, you picked up a paper plate, worked your way through the egg rolls, chop suey, won ton, spareribs, and other Oriental goodies, and then helped yourself to orange juice, Coke, 7 Up or punch. After eating all the food you could possibly manage, you were treated to a fortune cookie, and the festivities were over . . . all too soon!

David wanted to make sure that he didn't give in to the temptation of all that food so he played it safe, and didn't come near the food at all. We missed him very much, and it was a shame that he had to miss out on such a great evening! That's what happens when you have to watch your diet!

And speaking of Partridges on diets, Susan Dey told me that she'd like to lose a few pounds!

"I know I'm not overweight or anything, but I just feel healthier when I'm a few pounds lighter," says Susan.

Susan said that she put on a couple pounds while she was in New York recently.

NO MORE MINI-TRAIL

Danny finally sold his prize possession . . . his Honda Mini-Trail. One of his friends was riding it, and drove it over a cliff! Danny took it to a bike repair shop, but the salesman said that the bike couldn't be fixed.

He sold it to his next door neighbor, who plans on using some of the salvagable parts in a go-cart that he's building.

Danny said that although he will miss the Honda, he'll have a lot of fun helping to build the go-cart!

Most of you know that Dan got a new dressing room this season, right? Well, in case you didn't, he got a double trailer with a dressing room and sitting room. Well, I spend a good deal of time in his trailer while I'm on the set, and I decided that I liked the furniture in the dressing room better than the furniture in the sitting room, so I asked Danny if he'd mind if I changed a few things around.

Naturally, Danny really didn't care one way or the other, but he said he wouldn't mind some interior decorating on my part. So I decided where I
