● I would like to know where I can write to Engelbert Humperdinck.

(A.V. Smith, Lynchburg, Va.)

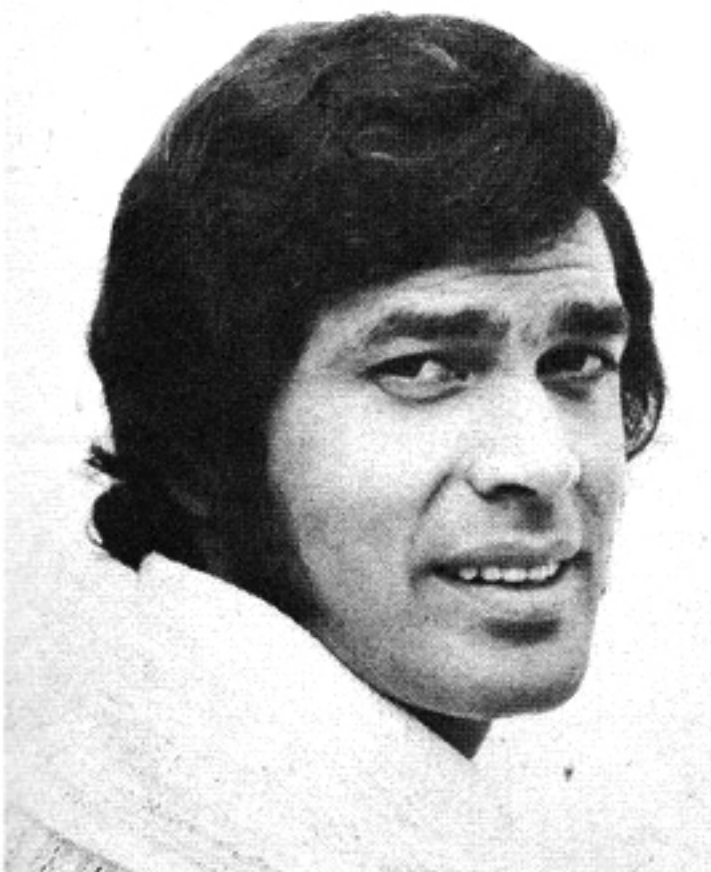

You can write to him in care of London Management, 235 Regent Street, London, W.I., England.

● What is David Cassidy really like? Does he live alone or is he married? Can I get his address?

(B. Lawrence, Lancaster, Calif.)

David Cassidy is a very gentle person, even tempered, kind, very careful not to offend or hurt anyone. He is not married, does not have a steady even (how is that for good news, girls?) and insists he isn't in the mood for marriage either because he saw two of his mother's marriages fail, and he realizes that it takes a lot to make a marriage work—and he wants his to last! Right now he's living in a delightful cabin-like home well hidden in the Hollywood Hills, and that's the way he wants it to stay—hidden. He enjoys his privacy very much, and while he is flattered by the attention of fans, he doesn't feel screaming mobs, or people who sit outside his house day and night are to be taken that seriously. Such reactions, he feels, are passing fads, and for the moment, they've simply latched on to him. This is one reason why he has not become snobbish or big-headed. He's had to move once already because his address was uncovered, and he managed that change of abode only with the help of friends who rushed a truck to his place in the middle of the night, and helped him pack up and leave!

● I am a great fan of Raquel Welch. I read about her, see her movies. I would like to know if Raquel Welch looks terrible without makeup. Oh, and also, how would I get a picture of her?

(Adam Teufel, Crozet, Va.)

You will be happy to know that Raquel looks beautiful without makeup. She is one of these very, very fortunate creatures who seems to have been put together just right! However, she is also a master with makeup, knowing just how much to use, and what her best features are, so when she is in makeup, she's even more attractive. You can get a picture

● I was wondering if you could help me get a record that was recorded by Lorne Greene. It is called "Bonanza Ponderosa Party Time" with the original cast, and the number is LPM2583. I will hope to hear from you with an address where I can send for it as it is the only album he has made that I do not have, and I think Lorne Greene is the best singer I have heard in a long time. So please help me out as I cannot find his record here, and I've tried! Thank you for your help!

(Mary Collins, 1207 Watts Ave., Rockton, Ill. 61072)

We ran into the same bad luck that you did, Mary. That record is out of print, and none are being made up, so not even a special order is being made. The only way you can obtain the record is to shop around and if you're lucky,
