

English teenagers consider John Mayall the man with the all-soul sound.

Robert Lipton is now romantically involved with Juliet of the screen, Olivia Hussey.

"For now," he says, "I'm enjoying dating—and dating lots of girls."

Insiders say that DAVID SELBY, who was just completed the film version of Dark Shadows has been offered his pick of scripts. David has turned down all the Hollywood offers, since his spooky soap is shot in New York City. But he's sent word west that if a film is being planned with a New York location—and that if it can be worked in with his DS chores—he'd accept!

Ditto for JONATHON FRID!

Good news for HAGERS' watchers—you may be seeing the twins in person! They're planning another national tour with Hee Haw star BUCK OWENS' All American Show, and may soon be in your area!

That girl and That Guy are doing it again—MARLO THOMAS and TED BESSELL have revived the romance that came to a halt just about a year ago when it got close to the marrying stage—let's see what happens this time around!

And while we're filling you in on romances, don't believe that PATTY DUKE and DESI JR. are "talking business" when they go out for quiet dinners in Hollywood! That was the "official" explanation, but it doesn't fool those in the know. Wonder what LUCILLE BALL has to say about it???

And just to prove that Desi isn't the only guy who can attract the attention of a younger girl, DINO MARTIN and CANDY BERGEN are still very much "an item" in the movie world news. They've been seen in public several times, and more important, have had several private visits!

DAVID CASSIDY's new album is being rushed out, along with some singles from the Partridge Family show. As you know, Dave's mother, SHIRLEY JONES, is the star of the series—but Shirley's husband, JACK CASSIDY, will be a guest star before too long.

That's about it for now—you'll find more news in the following pages about your favorite stars on the screen scene!

John Schlesinger, who made a star out of John Voight, says his next big star will be Murray Head in the film, "Bloody Sunday". Murray was a dancer.

Although Sammy Davis recently wed, the rumors about he and ex-wife Mai Britt have not stopped.

"Dark Shadows" David Hennesy says acting is more fun than work.
