

SET-SIDE with CECELIA

Now you can personally get in on all the Partridge activity and fun as Danny's sister Cecelia Bonaduce, President of the Partridge Fan Club takes you right on the set each month!

Hi! It's me, Celia Bonaduce, sister of that daring red-headed Partridge, Danny. I'm going to be taking you on the set with me, but wait! Have I got a surprise for you! Instead of going directly to the Partridge set this month, I thought it might be a good idea to go out to lunch with David, Shirley and Susan first!

I guess you'd like to know what to wear, wouldn't you? Well, since David is going to be our host, and David prefers casual clothes, why not dress casually? But, remember, Shirley likes to go to nice restaurants, so don't dress TOO casually.

Now that we're all assembled, where will we go? David asks you where you'd like to go, but you know that David will pick a great place, so you pass! Susan suggests the "Yankee Pedlar," because they serve great salads there. A cool, crisp salad sounds good to us, so that's where we're off to!

As we're driving along Hollywood Boulevard, you suddenly realize exactly who you're going to have lunch with, and you wonder if you'll be able to eat, since the butterflies in your stomach won't stop jumping around!

DOES THIS LOOK LIKE AN unhappy Partridge gathering? Don't be discouraged, it's all in a day's work—the Partridges are simply filming a scene!

But, believe me, David and Susan and Shirley are three of the nicest people you'd ever run into, and by the time you've ordered your lunch, you will have forgotten that you're dining with the Partridges! I know how you feel, because I've been through it myself!

Everything on the menu looks good, and it takes forever to make up your mind! Susan, naturally, orders a salad with no dressing. David will probably order lobster or cracked crab, and Shirley might have a steak. That leaves us, doesn't it? I haven't decided yet, so you go first! Remember how good a salad sounded?

While we're waiting for our lunch to arrive, David tells us about his concert tours. They sound so exciting, that you wish you could have seen all of them... one sounds better than the other!

Lunch finally arrives, and everybody is starving! The butterflies in your stomach have been replaced by hunger, and now that the food has arrived, you're all set to gobble it up! David tells you that working on the set all morning has made him pretty hungry too, and the two of you smile at each other, and dig right in!

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Now that lunch is over, we hop back in the car, and head for the studio again. "We'll have to stop for gas," David says, "or we'll have to walk back to the studio!"

We pull into a gas station, and there are three girls in the car next to us. They spot David, Shirley and Susan and giggle with excitement! You feel

OH DEAR! IT'S THAT RED-headed brother of mine, Danny, and our good pal Brian Forster at the controls! This gadget measures the loudness of sound!
