

like the luckiest girl in the world . . . here you are in the same car with them!

The girls jump out of their car and ask the three Partridges for their autographs. David is the first to sign, then Shirley and Susan.

BACK AT THE RANCH

It's two o'clock on the nose when we pull into the studio. Lunch is over, and it's time for the Partridges to get back to work! The first step is to get into costume.

The six Partridges head for their assorted dressing rooms, and five minutes later appear on the set, not as Shirley, David, Susan, Danny, Brian, and Suzanne, but as The Partridge Family! Oh, yes, and we can't forget Rueben Kincaid! It's hard to believe, isn't it? They seem so natural, and so REAL as the Partridges, that you half expect the kids to call Shirley "mom"!

We step outside for a minute, while the cast is rehearsing, and talk about our luncheon date. It was really exciting, wasn't it? While we're talking, Suzanne and Brian come running out of the sound stage and head for a white dressing room with WES STERN written on the door! It seems that the Partridge kids have adopted Wes as an honorary Partridge, and they spend a good deal of their free time with Wes in his trailer!

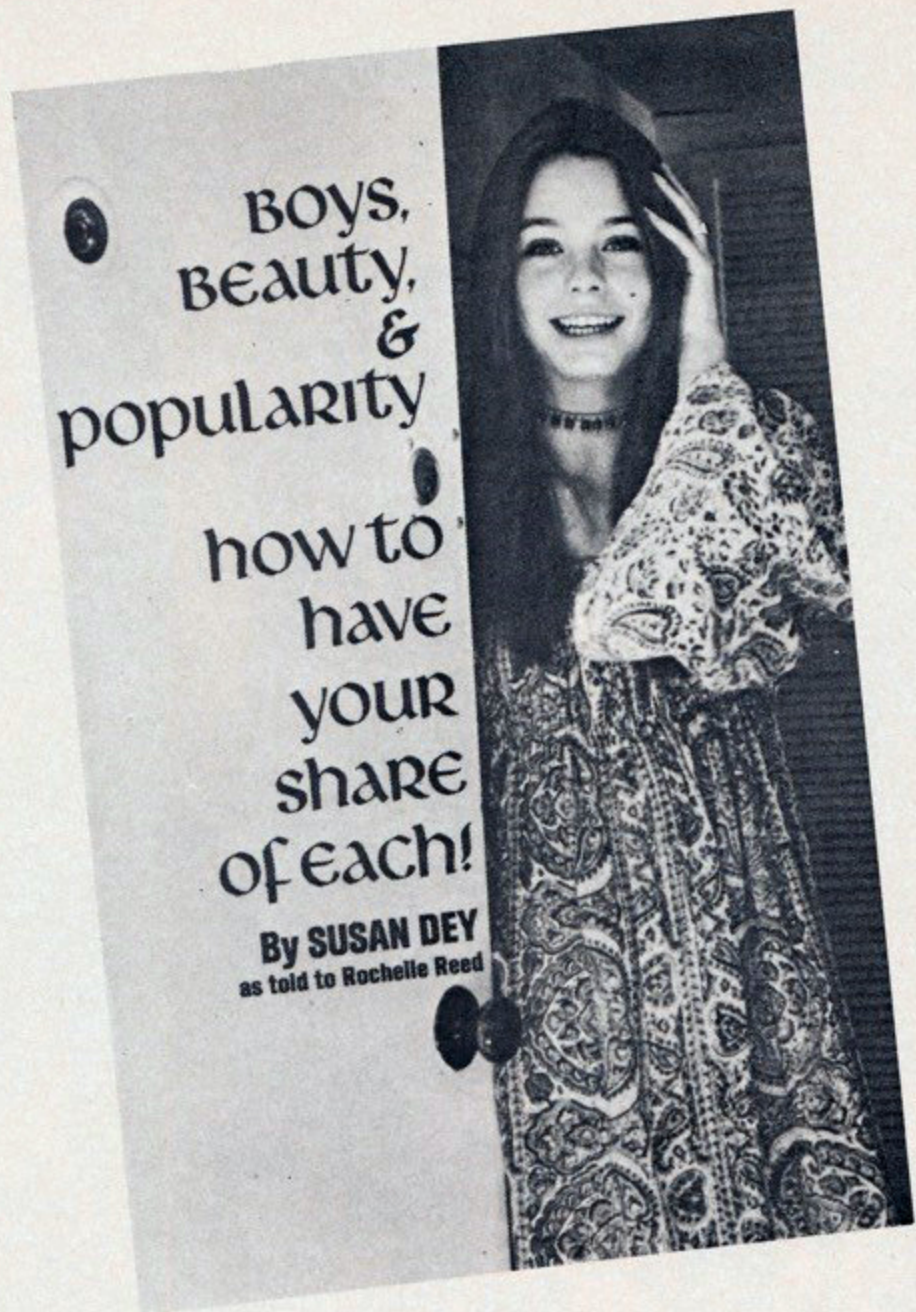

Unfortunately for Brian and Suzanne, it's time to go back to work, and they say good-bye to Wes and zoom back into the studio. We follow them inside so we can watch them shoot the scene. No matter how many times you visit the studio, watching them film is always exciting!

THE PING-PONG TABLE

A new addition on the set is the ping-pong table! Next to the Frisbee, the ping-pong table is the favorite sport around the Partridge set! Everybody plays! Even Mrs. Crough, Mrs. Forster, and Mrs. Bonaduce! Sometimes the kids challenge their mothers, and it's a riot to watch! But today, since you're a special guest, The Partridge kids are going to challenge YOU instead as soon as they finish the next scene!

I'd better warn you, Danny and Brian are pretty good! David sees you struggling with the little white ball,
