Q. My girlfriend told me that David Cassidy was a lot shorter than Susan Dey and that whenever they did scenes together David had to stand on his tip-toes! She isn't telling the truth is she?

A. No, she certainly isn't! Just to prove it, David and Susan stood back to back for you. Actually David is just a fraction over 5'8" tall and Susan Dey is an even 5'7"!

Q. Does Dave Madden ever get serious or is he always a comedian—even in true life?

A. Dave is serious most of the time. Although he loves clowning around and having fun teasing the Partridge kids and although he is a comedian, he's a very serious fellow—when it comes to serious things. Dave's multi-talented in a serious way, too, and in his spare time he makes tape recordings on subjects such as women's liberation, the war, and cigarettes. He writes the material and then records it himself. Although it is humorous, it is dealt with in a down-to-business fashion.

Q. Does Suzanne Crough take tambourine lessons?

A. No, Suzanne did have several lessons when the series first went on the air, but she's more interested in organ lessons! She's just started them, and her mom says she really loves it!
