

Q. Why did Danny get rid of his horse, Patience?

A. Danny felt that it was unfair to Patience to be kept at a stable all day and only ridden on weekends. Since Danny's Partridge schedule is so heavy he didn't have enough time to devote proper attention and care to his horse. Although he dearly loved Patience, he felt the horse could have a happier home elsewhere.

Q. Has David recovered completely from his gall-bladder operation?

A. Yes! David's been back on the set since August 9th. His first two weeks back the studio filmed shows that his part wasn't too heavy in so he wouldn't have to work really hard right away. Now, everything's back to normal and we're all glad David's well. You can read the story in the October issue of Partridge Family and also in the November issue of FaVE.

Q. Does Brian Forster have a step-mother or step-father?

A. Brian has a step-father. His mom, Jennifer, married Whit Bissell several years ago. Brian is her son from a previous marriage. Whit Bissell is a character actor and has appeared in many films and television shows, among them "Time Tunnel" and "Airport."

Q. Does Danny Bonaduce have his own room at home or does he share it with one of his brothers?

A. Danny has his own room.
