

WHAT'S HAPPENED TO KAREN!? Famous Hollywood make-up artist Maurice Stein took over one afternoon and transformed her into a vampire! Mr. Stein, of The Hollywood make-up Artists & Hair Stylists' Union did the make-up for "Escape From the Planet of the Apes!" Wow!

FINAL TOUCHES ARE MADE by hair stylist Gail Rowell, who is the head hair stylist for NBC-TV! Mr. Stein and Miss Rowell also made Karen up as an old lady! You can see more of these great make-up jobs in issues of Fave and Tiger Beat and Tiger Beat Spectacular, on sale now!

OF COURSE SINCE Karen had a super dinner date with handsome actor Michael Gray that night, she couldn't go out looking like a vampire! Mr. Stein, after un-doing his tremendous job, started all over again to make Karen into a very glamorous 16 year old girl, for her date!

DOESN'T SHE LOOK LOVELY? And wouldn't you know, just before Michael came by the hotel to pick her up, singer Browning Bryant, who was in the same hotel, dropped by for a quick visit with Karen. Dinner with Michael was at the Islander, a Polynesian restaurant!

THE NEXT MORNING HELD more surprises for Karen! She was whisked off to lunch by Barry Williams and the entire "Brady Bunch" cast at the Brown Derby! Barry helped Karen select a delicious meal—of course the other "Bradys" all chipped in with their suggestions!

WHAT'S A TRIP TO HOLLYWOOD without a visit to Disneyland? David's tight schedule didn't permit him to escort Karen there and he was disappointed! But, it was Prince Charming to the rescue and one of David's best friends, Al Rhodes, showed her the magic park!
