

SAM IS MISSING!

Where had he gone?

Had he run away?

Was he stolen?

Or was it something worse...

There is no one who loves animals more than David Cassidy. And there's no animal David loves more than his fantastic dog, Sam! Sam is more than just a pet to David—he's a companion, a friend, a comfort to David when he's down or upset, and, according to David himself, Sam is his biggest fan!

Whenever David takes the camping trips he loves so much (and gets the time for so seldom lately) Sam goes along, running through the woods, splashing in the cool mountain streams, and generally making the trip four times as much fun! He wakes David up in the morning after a night under the stars by licking his face, because Sam's always eager for more exploration, more hiking, and more swimming!

DAVID'S ALARM CLOCK

And even at home, Sam is David's alarm clock. Whenever David tries to sleep in, Sam gets impatient and leaps up on the bed, which makes a small earthquake that gets David up faster than anything! David may grumble about how he'd like to sleep till noon, but Sam's happy face is enough to put him in a good mood.

In fact, it was the permanent grin of Sam's shaggy face that led to his name! A lot of people think that David named Sam after his roommate,
