EXCLUSIVE

Each month read all the fan club news about the Partridge Family right here in Cecilia Bonaduce's column!

During the summer months, the Partridges have to grin and bear the blistering California sun, and turn out Partridge episodes. But even actors have to take a break, and recently, David, his roommate Sam, Susan, Jane Joyce (Susan's roommate and stand-in), Danny, and assorted Bonaduces all headed for Dave Madden's beach house for a day of swimming and relaxation.

As soon as we arrived at Dave's place, we were ushered down two hundred steps to the beach just in time to see a spectacular horse parade. The leader of the parade was wearing a red uniform with white stars on it. He also had a red and white saddle, and was carrying a huge American flag! Glory hallalujah! Almost all the people in the parade were friends and neighbors of Dave's and they decided to stop and chat for awhile.

ocean, and we'd have to stop and look for it every couple of minutes! (Another problem with the tide was us trying to get around some of the rocks without getting soaked). Luckily, we always found the frisbee, but David was elected to run in the water every time, so by the time we got home, David was wringing wet!

DANNY'S LATEST hobby is photography and he loves shooting pictures of all his Partridge buddies at work!

Jane caught the frisbee once and threw it, and, naturally it landed in the water! David ran in to retrieve it, but a doberman pincher intercepted! The dog grabbed the frisbee, and wouldn't give it back. David and I tried wrestling with the dog, reasoning with the dog, we even tried tricking the dog... but no dice. Finally the owner of the dog showed up, and she tried to get the frisbee back.

"Come on, Mia, give them their frisbee back," she said.

Mia didn't listen. As a matter of fact, instead of letting loose, she bit down even harder and put teeth marks right through the thing! David and the woman who owned the dog tried to pull her jaws open while I tried to pull the frisbee out, but that dog was
