Newfound Fave RON MARTIN has a new hobby—tennis! NBC's "Somerset" only films three or four days a week in the afternoons, so each morning RON gets up at 7 a.m. and heads for Central Park where he plays tennis for three or four hours. On his days off, he works on his music and still practices playing his trumpet and the piano. As you may have gathered, he keeps pretty busy!

Ron Martin's new hobby is tennis!

THE OSMONDS moved closer in to Hollywood in September. They found that when they weren't on the road touring that their house in the Valley was just too inconvenient since they do so much work at the TV and recording studios in Hollywood. They'll transfer all their recording equipment from the garage in their Valley home to the new house in the Hollywood Hills. By the way, that makes them real neighbors to us now, so may I say welcome to the neighborhood!

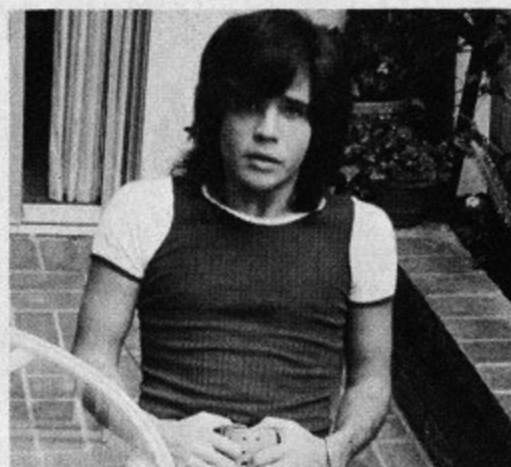

Visiting the Osmonds is always fun!

Mitch becomes a Cartwright soon!
