

the LO DOWN

IF YOU'D LIKE to look really pretty in exactly the kind of Partridge Family clothes that Susan Dey and Suzanne Crough wear on the show, you can now buy your very own PF outfits at any clothing store or department store that carries the Kate Greenway line. Yep — Kate Greenway is now making Partridge Family clothes for girls! So be sure to pick up on some of these groovy "threads" for yourself . . . And speaking of the Partridge Family gang, David has decided that his elaborate, luxurious home in the Hollywood Hills is just a little bit too elaborate and luxurious — so he and his present roommate, film cutter-merchandiser Sam Hyman, and his new roommate, guitarist-musician Steve Ross, are going to move out of the Los Angeles area! They are trying to find an out-of-the-way place (maybe near Malibu, which is on the Pacific coast) with lots of land. What David says he would really like best of all to find is a big ranch overlooking the ocean. He also hopes (and prays!) that, if and when he does move, the fans won't discover his new hideaway. "Seems like they can always find out where I live," David recently said. "I don't blame them for looking, and I'm not really mad at them, but the fact is I simply must have peace and quiet sometimes and I cannot get it with a lot of unexpected, uninvited girls suddenly dropping in on me continuously."

Take a good look at two of the handsome young men whose pictures are on this page. They are Kristoffer Tabori and Robert Forster, and soon you will be able to see them both in a penetrative and unusual new movie called Journey Through Rosebud. You've already seen Kris Tabori in such hit flicks as Sweet Charity and Making It — and you've seen Robert Forster do his thing in Justine and Medium Cool. But nothing will be as spectacular as when the two of them get together on the Rosebud screen-scene. More about that later . . . And speaking of movies, the most fabulous new flick to hit the screen in ages is MGM's colorful beauty called Peter Rabbit And The Tales Of Beatrix Potter. When it comes your way, don't ask any questions — just go see it! And if you aren't lucky enough to have the rare pleasure of watching Peter Rabbit, Tabitha Twitchit, Squirrel Nutkin and Jemima Puddleduck — to name a few (all the parts are danced by England's Royal Ballet), of course you can always buy your very own set of little Beatrix Potter books. Her beautifully illustrated and sensitive little books have such titles as The Tale Of Tom Kitten (who hated to wear clothes!), The Tale Of Mrs. Tiggy-winkle, The Tale Of The Two Bad Mice and — natch — The Tale Of Peter Rabbit — all at your nearest neighborhood bookstore . . . From the sublime to the goose-pimplly — if you love horror flicks don't miss AIP's Bunny O'Hare starring (among others) David Cassidy's very own dad — Jack Cassidy!

Good news for music lovers! English blues star (all six feet and seven inches of him!) John Baldry has a fabulous new LP out on Warner Brothers. It's called It Ain't Easy and it was produced by some of John's former band members — namely Rod Stewart, Ron Wood and Elton John (ever heard of them?). It Ain't Easy is a don't miss . . . Another don't miss is Paul Carney's (son of comedian Art Carney) Mercury LP Threshold. Threshold is composed of all original material, and after you give it a listen — if you'd like to write to Paul — his address is Mercury Records, 110 West 57th Street, New York City . . . And if you're one of those many 16 regulars who just loves writing letters, be sure to drop a line to tomorrow's newest TV star, sweet and lovely Wes Stern — who'll be Bobby's sidekick on Bobby Sherman's upcoming ABC-TV Getting Together. You can write to Wes at ABC-TV, Prospect & Talmadge, Hollywood, California.
