

DANNY AND SUZANNE

Only one year ago there was no such thing as a TV show called "The Partridge Family!" Then it was one pilot script and five young actors and actresses who were going to play brothers and sisters, but who in real life were complete strangers to each other. But now, after one year of "The Partridge Family," all that has changed. David, Susan, Danny, Suzanne and Jeremy know each other almost as well as if they were brothers and sisters in real life, and naturally, they have formed some special friendships among themselves. Let's take a look at two of them and find out how David and Susan, and Danny and Suzanne really feel about each other!

OF LOVING!
