

HOLLYWOOD

May Mann's

May raises the roof on Hollywood and lets us all peek in!

May Mann's tireless work to bring recognition to the youth of Hollywood gave her the honor of naming their awards to the stars "The Oscarette." Hollywood's biggest stars showed up to receive their awards from the Junior Philharmonic Orchestra of California, sponsors of the event each year. Eddie Albert, M.C., Jack Benny, Ali MacGraw, Danny Thomas, May Mann, Dr. Ernst Katz, Conductor, John Phillip Law, Carol Burnett, David Cassidy, Mitch Vogel, Buddy Rogers, Kurt Russell and Tom Smothers.

The 16th Annual Oscarette Awards (Black Tie) were held at the beautiful Theatre of the Scottish Rites. Attended by 2,000 state and civic leaders, sponsored by Dr. Ernst Katz's Junior Philharmonic Orchestra of California, with May Mann as Oscarette presenter. The 1971 winners who received the Oscarette were:

1971 WORLD STAR OSCARETTE
HUMANITARIAN
AWARD: DANNY THOMAS

1971 ALL STAR OSCARETTE
MOTION PICTURE
AWARD: ALI MACGRAW

1971 ALL STAR COMEDY
OSCARETTE AWARD: CAROL
BURNETT

1971 NEW STAR MOTION PIC-
TURES OSCARETTE AWARD:
JOHN PHILLIP LAW

1971 NEW TEEN STAR
OSCARETTE TV AND
RECORDS: DAVID CASSIDY

1971 TEEN STAR OSCARETTE
IN TV SERIES: MITCH VOGEL

1971 TEEN STAR OSCARETTE
IN MOTION PICTURES: KURT
RUSSELL

May announces that Ali MacGraw and Danny Thomas are the only stars ever to win Oscarettes two years consecutively in the 16 years of its history. Ali was in Europe last year. Danny flew in especially for his "Star of Stars" award this year.

