

THE STARS

MACGRAW and battling BOB EVANS!

■ You don't have to be young to have problems: LANA TURNER has a set of regulations for reporters who want to interview her, and the rules center around the policy that "Miss Turner will not discuss any of the unpleasant periods of her life." As one might expect, that makes for some of the shortest interviews on record!

■ INGRID BERGMAN gave daughter PIA LINDSTROM some motherly advice when Pia dashed over to visit her in Europe, on the rebound after a battle with her boy friend, BOB EATON. Pia and Bob are an on-again, off-again couple, and no doubt Ingrid had lots of helpful hints.

Above: Princess Grace was delighted as mother greeted her daughter Stephanie.

■ FRANK SINATRA has been entertaining VICE PRESIDENT AGNEW regularly at his Palm Desert Place. Wonder if it's true that Frank might be made an Ambassador if PRESIDENT NIXON is re-elected in 1972.

■ Those ever battling GEORGES—both SCOTT and KENNEDY—are at it again, each with his respective Mrs. GEORGE C. SCOTT and COLLEEN DEWHURST are separated and drifting farther apart than ever, while GEORGE KENNEDY and his wife, also with their preliminary walking papers, have neither a hope nor any desire to try it again.

Above: Dino, Sr. is proud his namesake's accomplishments and choice of a wife.

■ Friends say it's getting more and more serious between PETE DUEL and DIANA RAY. . . Diana, unlike KIM DARBY and some of the other girls Pete has gotten involved with, is very quiet and unglamouroriented, and Pete is pleased at falling "in like" with somebody who's a real person.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Eastwood are an inseparable couple. Why the frown, Clint?

■ GERALDINE CHAPLIN had a surprising revelation or two to make about her famous father recently. In fact, she told the press that her new interest in Judaism isn't new at all! There had been stories circulating that Geraldine was converting to a new religion, but she announced that it was the Kirk Douglas, sporting a full-grown beard, partied recently with his glowing wife Ann.

