SNEAK PREVIEW: BOBBY SHERMAN'S NEW TV SHOW!

Fall may be a way off, but in the world of TV, planning for the next season always starts months—or even years—in advance. Bobby Sherman's new series, to be seen over ABC-TV come September, is already off the planning boards and in front of the cameras at Screen Gems Studios in Hollywood, and it promises to be a huge success.

Bobby stars as a song writer (so there'll be plenty of chances for him to sing!), and Wes Stern, a talented young comedian, plays his sidekick. Also in the cast is Pat Carroll, a funny girl who has appeared on numerous shows.

"I can't wait!" Bobby says of his new project—and no doubt his fans will echo his words.

Bobby will introduce new songs on the show, and he'll be joined by some terrific guest stars. Recently, Bobby joined David Cassidy and the Partridge Family on their ABC series, so don't be surprised if David pays a return visit now that Bobby has a new program of his own.

The series debut is still a few months away, but TVSS is happy to bring you these exclusive photos for our special sneak preview!
