

DAVID

SUZANNE CROUGH

MARIE OSMOND

RUMOR:

My friend and I are betting on the correct way to pronounce Suzanne Crough's last name! I say it's "crogg" and she believes it's "crow."

I've seen pictures of David Cassidy where his eyes will photograph brown, and other times they'll look hazel or green. What color are they really?

One of my girlfriends told me that a long time ago she read that Susan Dey had a weight problem. I can't believe it 'cause she's so slender and pretty now!

Is there really a special column in one of your magazines that is written about the Osmond Brothers by their sister Marie? Tell me all about it!

Maybe it was a misprint in another magazine, but it said that Barry Williams is 6'8" tall! Please assure me this is false!

I've noticed lots of pictures in which David Cassidy was wearing a new gold ring. Can you tell me where he got it?

I heard that David Cassidy celebrated his 21st birthday with the staff of FaVE and Tiger Beat! Is that true?

We always watch the "Partridge Family" in color, and one of my girlfriends said that Danny Bonaduce probably dyes his hair since it's such a bright red! Could she be right? I'll die if she is!

TRUTH:

It looks like your friend wins the bet this time! Suzanne's last name is pronounced "crow."

David's eyes are a real sparking shade of hazel!

Well, it's true! Susan admits that at one time she started putting on pounds when her desire to eat sweets hit its peak! But with the aid of her mother she started indulging in healthier foods with minimum calories, and now has no problem maintaining her slim 92 lbs.

You've brought your question to the right place! Every month in Tiger Beat Marie Osmond does a column on her brothers, keeping everyone up-to-date with all the latest news concerning tours, personal appearances, and general happenings around the Osmond household! And whatever information she doesn't cover, Donny writes about in his personal monthly column, "A Date With Donny," in FaVE! Be sure to check them both out each month!

Please believe us—it is false! Barry is only 5'8"!

David's father presented him with the gold ring last Christmas, and inside it he inscribed the words "Life, Love & Happiness, Dad." David usually doesn't care to wear much jewelry, but he does like rings, and this gold one is one of his favorites.

It sure is! And if you missed out on reading about all the action and grooving on the pix, you still have time to pick up some back issues while they last! You can come to David's party in the July issue of Tiger Beat (see ad on page 00), the August Tiger Beat Spectacular (see page 00) or the August issue of the official Partridge Family Magazine (on page 00)!

Wait! Don't die! Danny's unusual red hair is very natural. He's never touched it up in any way!
