below. Funny, but it was because his fans' love was so strong, because they were so beautiful and devoted that he had to stay in this room!

• PAINFUL MEMORY

Far below on the street, David could make out the crowd of girls before the hotels entrance. He jerked himself suddenly from the window as a painful memory swept over him.

It was the afternoon of his second tour, what seemed now so long ago. He had slipped out of his room unnoticed to be outside for a while and take a little walk. A young girl across the street had spotted him and in her quick dart across the street to get to him, had almost been hit by a car!

He had hurried over to her side and helped her up with the other people who had come to assist! She was crying and was visibly shaking.
