

LET'S TOUR WITH DAVID

DAVID IN MOTION is really something to see! And we're all looking forward to seeing YOU next!

Dear Brooks,
Where does David usually eat when you're on tour?

Donna Simpson
Boston, Mass.

Dear Donna,
David usually eats in his room. He has room service send something up. Although the food isn't the greatest, it's difficult for him to go out because it's likely to start a panic outside! Once he did go out and a little girl was almost injured trying to get to him. He felt so bad that he decided it's best if he stays in his room. He doesn't want anyone to ever get hurt!

Dear Brooks,
What kind of gifts do the girls in the cities David visits leave him?

Chrissy Shammen
R. I.

Dear Chrissy,
David gets mostly beautiful candles, incense, love beads—once he got a beautiful Hawaiian lei! We all took some of the flowers and wore them! We must have been the best-smelling people in town! Another thing David always gets is pictures of himself, I suppose because when you give a gift to someone you care for you want to give something precious and what could be more precious than your favorite picture of David himself?

Dear Brooks,
How do you get along with everyone in David's group?

C. C. Summers
Salt Lake City, Utah

Dear C. C.,
Fabulously! In fact, I'm sort of the den-mother! I sew on buttons, patch jeans, cut hair! One time the buttons on David's shirt he wears on stage were too small for the holes—they kept slipping out! I was frantically trying to sew the holes smaller minutes before he went on stage! Boy was I ever hurrying, but to the encouraging shouts of David, Sam, and the other musicians!
