

David's Happy Days!

Playing games in the street with other children in the neighborhood.

My first concert tour—and every one since then!

The day I was old enough to join my first Little League baseball team.

When my dog Sheesh had puppies.

The day I discovered I loved music!

When YOU wrote to me for the first time!

The trip I took to Hawaii last Spring.

Playing baseball with my three step-brothers, Shaun, Patrick and Ryan.

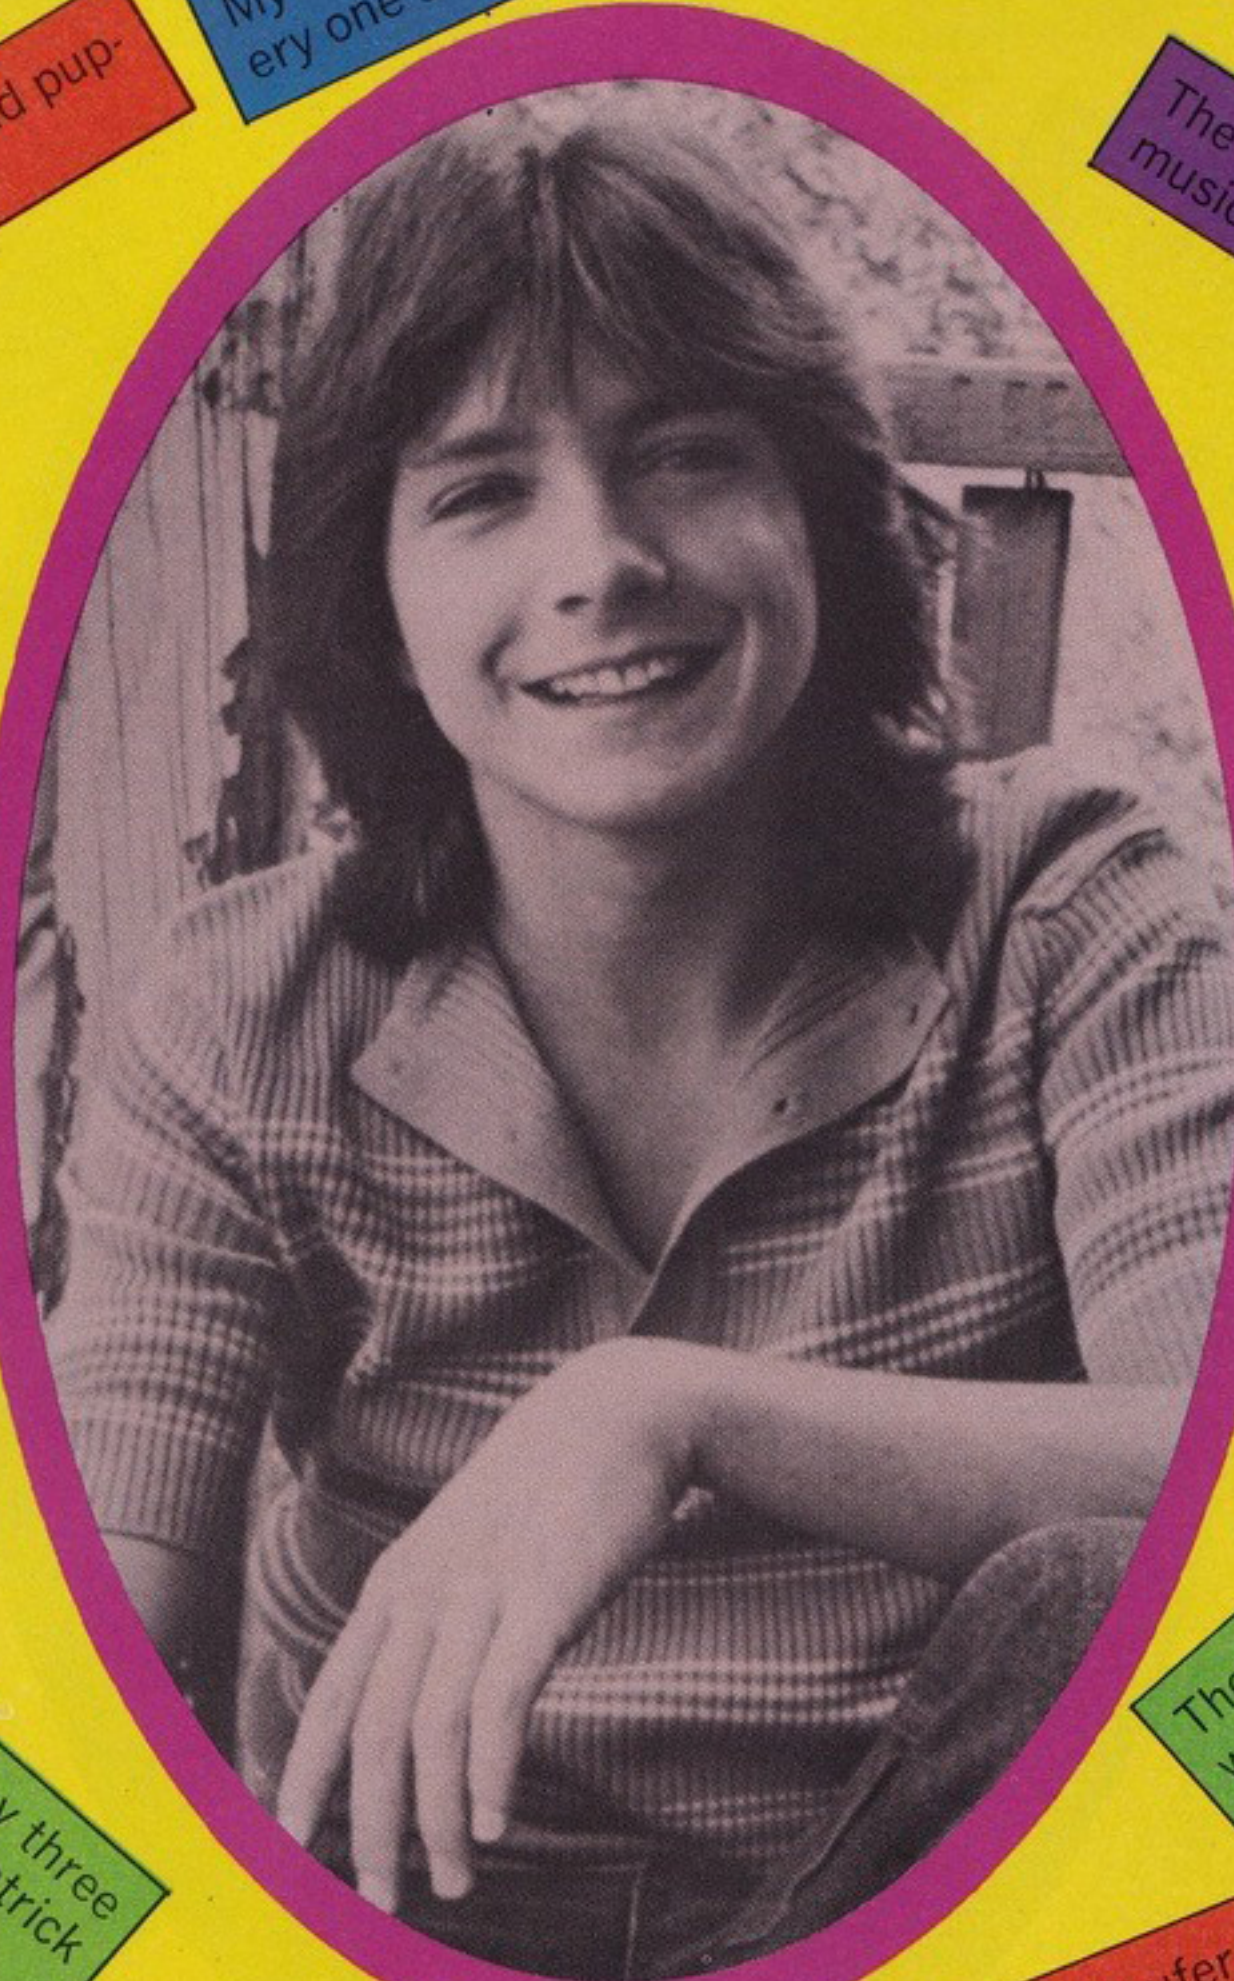

The day in junior high school when I met my roommate Sam Hyman.

Releasing the Partridges first single record "I Think I Love You."

The day The Laufer Company editors threw me a surprise party for my 21st birthday.

The happiest days of all are those when I can make YOU happy too!

The day I met YOU at the gate of Columbia Ranch.
