HELLO AGAIN—from the wonderful world of PF! Last month I told you what a typical morning on the set of The Partridge Family is like. You shared everything that David, Shirley, Danny, myself and the rest of the PF gang do and go through from the moment we arrive on the set—at about 7

A.M.—until our first actual run-through for a “take”. (By the way, a “run-through” is something like a rehearsal and a “take” is—hopefully—the final shooting by the cameraman.) So—come on and let’s get back on the set together!
