Here's the latest on your faves from Hollywood where it's all happening! If there are any special fax you'd like me to wheedle out of the stars you luv, by all means WRITE! Laudy Powell, Editor, FaVE Magazine, 1800 N. Highland Avenue, Hollywood, California 90028. I would love to hear from you!

MEMORY TIME! It's been four long but short years since the very first issue of FaVE hit the newsstands, carrying a photo of David Jones on the cover! Of course he was Davy the Monkee in those days, and nobody had even dreamed up a Partridge yet!

The year was 1967, and the super-faves of today were busy working their way up! A boy named David Bruce Cassidy was living in New York with his father and working part-time while looking for acting jobs in the theatre.

There was another guy named Bobby Sherman who was keeping busy producing his own records after the cancellation of a show he starred in called "Shindig."

And Donny Osmond was the youngest singing member of the Osmond Brothers, as cute as he could be but hardly a heartthrob at the tender age of nine!

It's nice to note that most of the stars featured in the first FaVE are still very much on the scene today. After a quiet year or so, David Jones' single "Rainy Jane" is up on the charts, and Donny and Bobby are bigger than ever!

Speaking of Bobby, how did you like his half-hour special? If you missed it, don't worry, because it was sooooo good I know they'll be rerunning it very soon!

I didn't get a chance to fill you in on the taping of the special last month because it was so close to my deadline, and I wanted to tell you a little something about it! When I arrived at the studio to watch, Bobby had already been working more than nine hours straight. "We were up at 7 a.m. shooting the outdoor scenes," grinned Bobby, who looked as fresh as a daisy. You see, even though a show lasts only half an hour on the air, Bobby is a perfectionist and he wanted everything to be just right!

Most of the audience had been there for hours, but every single person was having a great time! Bobby could have run back to his dressing room and rested while cameras were being moved, etc. but instead he stayed right out there, making everyone feel at home.

At one point he started a question and answer session, and without Bobby knowing it, they turned the cameras on and taped the whole thing! It turned out so well, with Bobby being his usual natural, charming self, that some of it was kept in the show!

Summer vacation is over already for all the Partridges, and everybody was hard at work when I visited the set this week. Everyone really misses Jeremy Gelbwaks, but they all agree that darling Brian Forster is a welcome addition to their family! He's so cute and full of fun that everyone loved him at first sight! (More about Brian on page 17.) Suzanne Crough is all smiles now that her front

GUESS WHO IS NOW TAKING boxing lessons! Of course it's David, and he's learning fast! He works out with an instructor about twice a week!
