

RUTH BUZZI is the sort of person who is loved by everyone who knows her—and even some who don't!

Despite constant break-up rumors, JACK CASSIDY and wife SHIRLEY seem to be very happy these days.

ladium Theatre after the ceremonies. Hundreds of friends and fans congratulated and hugged her. MARLO THOMAS, who was also nominated for an award but didn't win, wasn't looking too happy about it. No wonder. Her show "That Girl" was on for five years and she was nominated five times but she never made it . . . Remember ANNETTE FUNICELLO of the old Mousketeer days? Well, she's confided to us that she misses her days on "Micky Mouse Club" and wishes she could be back working there. She said she'd like to get back in acting but not if she has to go on location because her daughter GINA is starting kindergarten and she'd rather be close by. . . "Laugh-In's" RUTH BUZZI was speechless when she was awarded a trophy by Westerly, R.I., dignitaries to show their love and affection for her. The trophy was a park bench—the kind her character GLADYS always sat on whenever the little Old Man (Arte Johnson) walked by. RUTH had the bench placed in Wilcox Park, not far from the place her daughter was born. RUTH told Westerly friends that "GLADYS" wanted to come but she refused to attend unless she could wear hot pants and the local stores refused to sell them to her without a prescription! . . . THE CARPENTERS are living proof of what an award can get you. Making their bid for a regular TV series, the Grammy (music) award-winning brother and sister act, has been headlining "Make Your Own Kind of Music" each week this summer . . . The usual yearly hassle over at "Mission: Impossible" continues right on time. This time muscle-bound PETER LUPUS wants a raise. Executives didn't like the idea so PETER decided not to show up at work. When the officials heard this they told him to be there or else. Haven't found out what happened yet, but I'll let you know when I do . . . LYNDA DAY, LESLIE WARREN's replacement on the show is hoping her role will meet with a better end than LESLIE's or BARBARA BAIN's for that matter. PETER GRAVES must find his ever-changing cast of co-stars bewildering at times . . . GOLDIE HAWN is still scooping up all the
