

DEAR CAROL

Q. Is it true that Wayne Osmond was in his plane and crashed and was found dead? I sure hope not.

O.L.—Long Island, N.Y.

A. Heavens no! Wayne has never crashed his plane and he is very alive.

Q. My girlfriend told me that David Cassidy is going to Vietnam and that David Jones will take his place on "The Partridge Family." Is this true? I hope it isn't.

A.I.—Levittown, N.Y.

A. Good grief! No, it's not true. David Cassidy is no longer eligible for the draft so there's no chance of him being sent to Vietnam.

Q. Bobby Goldsboro had a song called "Watching Scotty Grow." Does he really have a son named Scotty?

J.N.—Fond Du Lac, Wis.

A. Actually, Scotty is the son of Mac Davis, the man who wrote the song.

Q. I read that Michael Cole had a sister named Colleen and then in another place I read that he has a sister named Paula. Which is correct?

M.L.—Calhoun, Ga.

A. Michael has two sisters—Colleen and Debbie. Paula is his girlfriend.

Q. I buy FLIP magazine a lot and I was wondering why do all the order blanks and contest coupons ask for your age. Do you have age limits on some things?

C.D.—Scottsdale, Ariz.

A. No, we don't put age limits on anything, but we do like to know as much as possible about our readers, including their ages, and this is one way of finding out.

Q. Do you have any idea where David Cassidy was in the picture on the cover of the April issue of FLIP?

B.G.—Mesquite, Tex.

A. Yes, I do, because I was there when that picture was taken! He was sitting in his chair on the set of "The Partridge Family" at the Columbia Ranch in Burbank, Calif. And he was holding a bunch of balloons, if you've been wondering what those strings are.

Q. I'm so confused about who sings lead on 3 Dog Night's song, "Joy To The World." I thought it was Cory but when they did it on the Grammys show, Chuck sang lead. Could you tell me who sings it?

L.L.—Bloomfield, Conn.

A. Yes, it is Chuck who sings lead on that one.

JANIS JOPLIN

Q. Is it true that "The Partridge Family" might go off the air and not come back! Please tell me it isn't.

A.F.—Cape Elizabeth, Maine

A. Relax. The show is a huge success and the network has renewed it for next season, so you'll see at least one more year of it.

Q. I heard that Michael Cole, David Cole and Dennis Cole are related. Is this true?

T.V.—Phoenix, Ariz.

A. No, none of them are related. And Tina Cole is not related to any of them either.

Q. I would like to know if Elvis Presley is really and truly divorced or is he still married?

T.D.Y.—Bishop, Calif.

A. Elvis and Priscilla Presley are still married.

Q. Is John Fogarty of Creedence Clearwater Revival married?

D.K.—Rumford, R.I.

A. Yes, all the members of Creedence are married.

Q. What is David Cassidy's middle name?

M.A.T.—Syracuse, N.Y.

A. His full name is David Bruce Cassidy.

Q. Do David Cassidy and The Partridge Family have a fan club. If so where do I join?

J.G.—Bronx, N.Y.

A. You can join The Partridge Family Fan Club by writing to 6311 Yucca St., Hollywood, Calif. 90028.
