DAVID'S DATING FILES

MUSIC LOVERS

David doesn't like to go to discotheques too often because they're usually so noisy and crowded that sometimes it's almost impossible for him and his date to find a place on the dance floor. But he does love music and he likes to take his dates to concerts.

Not long ago, he made a date with a girl he's known for awhile, a girl we'll call Marie. Knowing that she loves music as much as he does, he got two tickets for a big rock concert in Los Angeles.

The evening ended up to be quite a thrill for both of them. David really surprised Marie when he produced the tickets and together they enjoyed one of their favorite rock groups.

After the concert, David and Marie went off to a quaint little Italian restaurant for pizza. They talked and laughed and listened to the juke box playing softly in the background and soon they even forgot what time it was.

As David was driving Marie home, he realized how much he really wanted to see her again. As they said their goodnights at her front door, he whispered that he'd call her the following week. And he did.

AN OUTDOOR DAY

Most of the girls David goes out with know how much he loves the outdoors, so they're never surprised if he suggests spending a day in the mountains or at the beach.

A girl we'll call Jane loves the outdoors just as much as David, so when he called her up and asked her out for a particular Saturday, she surprised him by suggesting an all-day picnic.

David arrived at Jane's house pretty early because they'd be having a big drive ahead of them. They drove up into
