

Life Styles Of Two Super-Stars!

It's never really happened before! Just imagine, this fall there'll be two very special guys on television every week. Each of them could be your favorite singer, actor, or secret heart-throb. But good things come in twos and that's what's happening right now.

David Cassidy and Bobby Sherman lead very similar lives in many ways, but like each of us, David and Bobby choose individual ways of living their lives. Both film television shows every day at the Columbia Ranch in Burbank, California. (And wouldn't you know it, the sets are right next to each other.) Both must do their recording at night after a full day's shooting at the studio. And both spend most of their weekends flying across the country to entertain you at various concerts.

But, just for fun, we decided to compare a few of the daily habits David and Bobby perform and the results are ve-r-r-y interesting. Perhaps the part of life that Bobby and David share most equally is their gift of enjoying life, loving their fans, and giving happiness to everyone around them.

	BOBBY	DAVID
BREAKFAST:	Soft-boiled egg, coffee	Life cereal
SLEEPS IN:	King-size bed	Double bed
LIVES IN:	Sprawling house in Encino, Ca.	Large house in Hollywood Hills
DRIVES:	Rolls Royce, camper van, Porsche	Mustang
RELAXES BY:	Working in his garden	Fiddling around with his guitar
SPENDS WEEKENDS:	Giving concerts	Giving concerts
READS:	Books like The Prophet	Fiction books
DAYDREAMS ABOUT:	Conducting a symphony orchestra	Living on a South Seas island for a month
DATES:	Several girls	Infrequently
COOKS:	Gourmet dishes	Simple foods
WATCHES:	Home movies	Sporting events on TV
BED TIME IS:	Early	Late
SHOPS:	Enjoys buying presents	Hates to shop
ENTERTAINS:	Friends in for movies, friends in for dinner	Usually never formal entertainment
HOBBIES:	Home movies, dogs	Dogs, camping, scuba diving
BAD HABITS:	Worrying	Being late for appointments