

The Year of the Partridge

to the premiere of their show? Susan Dey was very disappointed with herself, at first. It never occurred to her that she must be doing something right . . . after all, look at the fans she's acquired in such a short time.

Danny and Suzanne were both amazed at their voices. Danny said that his was so raspy . . . how could anyone want to hear him talk? Suzanne thought that they were using someone else's voice!

ON THE LOOKOUT

Almost as soon as the first Partridge episode ended . . . fans were on the lookout for anyone who fit a Partridge description. David was an immediate success with the young ladies, Susan was receiving fan mail by the bag-full, and Danny, with his bright red hair, was recognized instantly wherever he went!

Partridge fans knew Jeremy right away because of his big, big eyes, but Suzanne had more trouble than anybody when a fan asked for an autograph. Suzanne didn't know how to write her name, she could only print it, and it would take about three minutes for her to complete an autograph! So Suzanne had to speed up her education by a year and learn to write, and write fast!

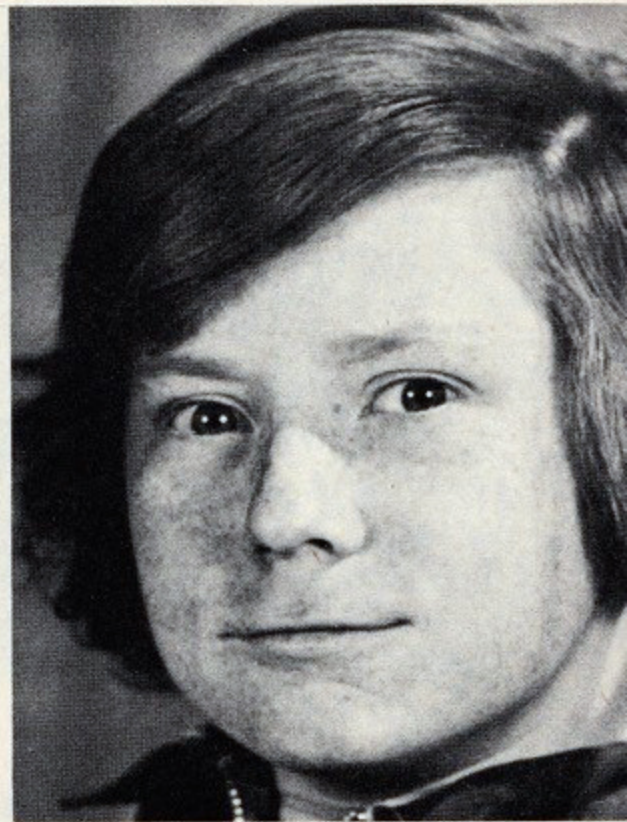

FAVORITE MOMENTS

A Partridge memory wouldn't be complete without a word from each Partridge on his or her favorite moment . . .

Shirley: "One thing I'll never forget as long as I live was learning to drive the Partridge bus. I had so much trouble with it. Next year

WHATEVER THE SCRIPT calls for has to be done! David just grins and bears it! Burrrrr!

FACES ARE FUN to make and Danny's pretty good at it! He really loves his role on the show!

THE CO-STARS OF "The Partridge Family" get along just like a real family! The Partridge women laugh as they watch David do the shower scene above.
