

The Year of the Partridge

THE PARTRIDGE FAMILY brought us many weeks of excitement, laughter, and love. It brought David to you and you to David. Isn't love wonderful?

we've been promised a new bus with power steering... I'm really looking forward to it."

Dave: "I love photography, and being on the Partridge set gave me plenty of time to get some great shots of all the cast and crew. I had so many pictures, that my Christmas present to the crew was a huge cardboard Christmas tree with EVERYBODY'S picture on it."

David: "While we're on the subject of Christmas, one special time for me was the Christmas party, where I was given an opportunity to sing a few songs... I loved doing it, and enjoyed getting the experience."

Susan: "I'll always remember the surprise birthday party the cast and crew had for me on my birthday... my dressing room was so full of flowers and gifts that I could hardly open the door."

Danny: "I guess I liked my birthday party best of all, too. I got all kinds of models and puzzles and clothes, and we had a huge cake... big enough to feed eighty people."

Jeremy: At Christmas time, Danny, Suzanne, and I were asked to show up for a benefit performance of "Scrooge" for underprivileged children. The movie was great, and everybody had a good time."

Suzanne: "I was so happy when we were shooting 'The Red Woodloe' show. It was my
