

DAVID'S FAVORITE PHOTOS

Editor's Note: We think it's safe to say that we have as many pictures of David Cassidy as anybody else, and probably more! David's very first shooting for any publication was for FaVE, and in the almost two years since then our cameras have been with him on the Partridge set and as far away as Hawaii! Even so, David was amazed at the number of photographs he had to go through when we asked him to choose his favorites! It took him almost a whole day, but he loved the memories they brought back! Let him tell you about them!

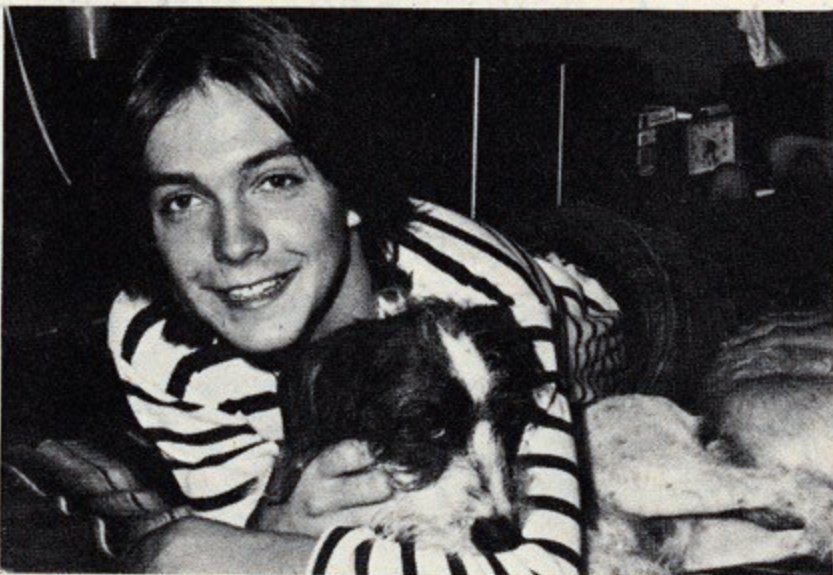

"I HAD TO CHOOSE at least one pic of me recording, there isn't much I like better than doing an album!"

"THIS IS ONE OF THE FIRST publicity shots taken of Danny, Susan and me. I remember we were waiting to start a scene and we were all flaked out because it had been a long day. It's so much like us that I dig it!"

"HERE I AM introducing 'I Think I Love You' on American Bandstand, hoping that the audience liked it!"

"MY FAVORITE PICTURES would not be complete without including a shot of my crazy, loveable dog Sam, who is so great that I miss him when I'm away for a few days!"

"AS ONE OF THE LEADING animal nuts of the world, you can imagine how I felt about Sam's pups! They all have good homes, but I wanted to keep them!"
