DEAR READERS:

I want to thank each and every one of you for your thoughtful letters. I love reading each and every one of them. Time and space make it impossible for me to answer each one personally, but your likes and dislikes and your opinions are given careful consideration here at Tiger Beat. Whenever you have a suggestion, a criticism or just want to sound off about something, drop me a note. I love hearing from you!

 Editor

Dear Ann,

Being in love with Bobby Sherman can be very dangerous! I live in Los Angeles and the morning of our big earthquake I awoke as the whole house was shaking. I realized I should've gotten out of bed and into the doorway to be safe, when suddenly I realized Bobby was probably feeling the same quake. I was so shocked that I forgot about taking cover and the whole house could have fallen on me and I wouldn't have noticed. Being a Bobby lover is great, but it's sure not safe!

Dear Ann,

I have just been reading TIGER BEAT and turned to Bobby's Personal Column. It made me think how lucky people in America are. We don't even see half the people here in Rhodesia that Americans do, yet they moan if their favorite star didn't blow them a kiss or touch their hand. The only famous people that have been out here were the Byrds two years ago, Billy J. Kramer and Wayne Fontana. David Cassidy, Rick Ely and the Osmonds are only names to us. The kids of America should stop moaning and be thankful for what they've got!

BLUE-EYED BLOND

I loved the pictures you ran of Frank Webb with his blond and brown hair. Since you asked for our votes, I'd like to say that I think he's cute with the brown, but not nearly half as handsome as he is as a blond! I hope he gets the part in the movie, and then when things settle down I hope to see those groovy yellow locks again!

GROOVY MOM!

I wrote a letter to Susan Dey about two weeks ago and just yesterday I got a letter from Susan's mother, who answers some of her mail. It was the most marvelous letter I could've received and it made me so happy. I want Susan to know I think she has a wonderful mother!

PERILS OF DARLENE

Everyone tells me that I daydream too much. I guess they're right! One day in gym, when my mind should have been on my feet, it was on Bobby instead. I was halfway through a beautiful Russian leap, and suddenly I was on the floor, tangled up like a rag doll. My ankle started really swelling up. The doctor said I wouldn't be able to go to school for at least a week. I thanked him for helping me and he smiled. But he sure looked surprised when I accidentally called him Dr. Jeremy!

SHORT BUT SWEET

I have a saying and here it goes:
 I love coffee
 I love tea
 I love David Cass-i-dy!

Dear Ann,

A couple of days ago I received my David Cassidy Wall-size Poster, and it's really beautiful! I think all David fans should get it!

We agree! If you're a David fan you won't want to be left out! Send in today for your own beautiful David Cassidy Wall-size Poster! See page 70!

SUPER CONCERT

I hope you won't consider this letter too old to answer, 'cause I'll just die if I don't know for sure! I went to David Cassidy's concert in Seattle, Washington a few months ago and found him to be even better in person than he is on TV. (If that's possible!) I thought I saw Kenny Lieu at the concert too. Does this mean there will be pictures in TIGER BEAT for everyone to see? I hope so! I'd love to re-live that wonderful day in my life!

Cheryl Thosteson

Dear Cheryl,

You CAN re-live that wonderful day 'cause Kenny Lieu was at David's first concert to bring back the scoop for TIGER BEAT! Pictures of David's exciting show were run in the June edition of TIGER BEAT, but if you missed out on seeing it, you can still pick up an issue through our Back Issue department. See coupon on page 72 and send in today!

BEAUTIFUL BOBBY

Not too long ago I was one of the six luckiest girls in the state (maybe even the world!) for having won a chance to meet Bobby Sherman backstage at one of his concerts. Before I met him I was sure I'd faint or lose my voice, or act like a true idiot! But when he entered the large dressing room where we all waited, all my nervousness disappeared. Bobby was so sweet and posed for pictures, signed autographs, and was a real gentleman. It's unbelievable that anyone could be so wonderful. Please thank Bobby for coming!

Love & peace,
