EXCLUSIVE

Each month read all the fan club news about the Partridge Family right here in Cecelia Bonaduce's column!

I was in my room yesterday, getting ready to visit the Partridge Family set, when I decided that it was high time I got dressed up... after all, I always go down to the Partridge set looking "comfortable" to say the least. So I got all dressed up and took off for the set.

Just as soon as I got there Suzanne ran into me with her bike. Now, Suzanne has never run into me when I was wearing jeans, but since I was wearing a dress and nylons, her bike felt compelled to put a big, black, tire mark on my leg!

Suzanne apologized, and I accepted (I really didn't care all that much, after all, a little soap and water, and I'd be good as new). Then I suddenly realized that this wasn't her usual bike.

Suzanne explained that the whole cast had gotten new bikes when the season started.

"The first bike they got me was shrimpy, and it had TRAINING WHEELS on it," she said in horror. "I don't need training wheels, so I've got a different bike... it's twenty four inches."

DANNY SAYS he can study anywhere!

As I looked around the studio lot, I noticed the other new bikes... and new riders spinning around. Dave Madden was riding with Brian Forster, and had gotten his suit dirty in the process.

I wasn't sure if his suit was dirty because he was needed in a scene like that, or if it was due to playing hide and seek with the three little Partridges. Dave said that the game was the thing that got to his suit. "I didn't intend on getting that involved in the game... I didn't even win," he said.

Susan came gliding around the corner on her new bike, and asked me if I'd like to try her bike... unfortunately I can't ride a bike more than three feet without falling flat on my face, so I mumbled something like "Well, if I had jeans on..." and walked sheepishly into the make-up room, where David and Shirley were getting ready to film a scene.

I hadn't seen Danny since I arrived, and I asked Mrs. Forster if she knew his whereabouts. "I think he's in the railroad car," she said.

Let me say that I was just as confused by that remark as you are now. It turns out that "school" is now being held in a railroad car just outside the studio doors. It's absolutely fascinating! The inside is beautiful, and there's twice as much room as the old "school room" which looked like a big box stuck in the middle of the floor.
