

HOLLY

May Mann's

May raises the roof on

Andy Williams' Christmas show was great as usual and he and Claudine seemed very tender with each other. The Lennon sisters enjoyed it too.

May and David Cassidy at movie ranch where "Partridge Family" is filmed. That rumor that he wears a wig is so wrong, says May.

For those who wonder if Andy spends much time with his children, he does. The two oldest want to know how show is done.

Mike Connors and his wife Mary, stood on either side of the newlywed Jack Carters to toast the happy occasion.

■ It takes fine timing and a bit of tricks to make all the dos and parties in movieland, as they jumble like a waterfall-with everyone intent on having a good time in spite of world troubles . . . John Lennon's new album, "Live Jam," goes political with songs of the North Ireland conflict and the Attica prison reform. While John sings softly, in lullaby style, the lyrics are anything but! Like, "If you had the luck of the Irish, you'd be sorry and wish you were dead." And choruses with "God Damm, God Damm." (John, such language!) Yoko Ono is on too. Anyway you probably know, if you're an ex-Beatle's fan. John and Yoko are going on tour with a new rock combo but, "everyone will find me a different Lennon," says John. "Don't expect me to be a Beatle again! I'm new."

David Cassidy is being acclaimed world-wide as the "Super Teeny Bop Idol" of the year, or maybe the century for that matter! Bobby Sherman's mentors are coming in swinging to keep their "Puppy Love Idol" up there too! Bobby reminds us he's recorded five albums with sales hitting over four million and he has eight singles out for another ten million. And if you eat Bobby's favorite breakfast cereal, well, there's another 30 million records.

Here's David, who's 21, who plays 16 as Keith Partridge on the T.V. series. In one day, four of his "Partridge Family" albums sold a combined 200,000 with bubble gum at $100,000!!! And consider: David's concerts earn him over a quarter of a million and managers are turning down all sorts of $125,000 a week for David in Las Vegas and all over the