

MITCH

RUMOR: Can you tell me where I can write to Mitch Vogel and know that my letter will reach him personally?

TRUTH: Write to Mitch at the Glenshaw Agency, 8440 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, Cal. 90069, or right here at Tiger Beat Spectacular!

RUMOR: Does Wes Stern have a crush on Susan Dey?

TRUTH: No, Wes doesn't have a crush on Susan! They're friends, and during filming at Columbia Ranch for the last fall season they visited each other on their sets, but that's as far as it went!

WES AND SUSAN

RUMOR: I heard a rumor that Donny Osmond had a disease and was rushed to the hospital last June. Is this true? I hope not!

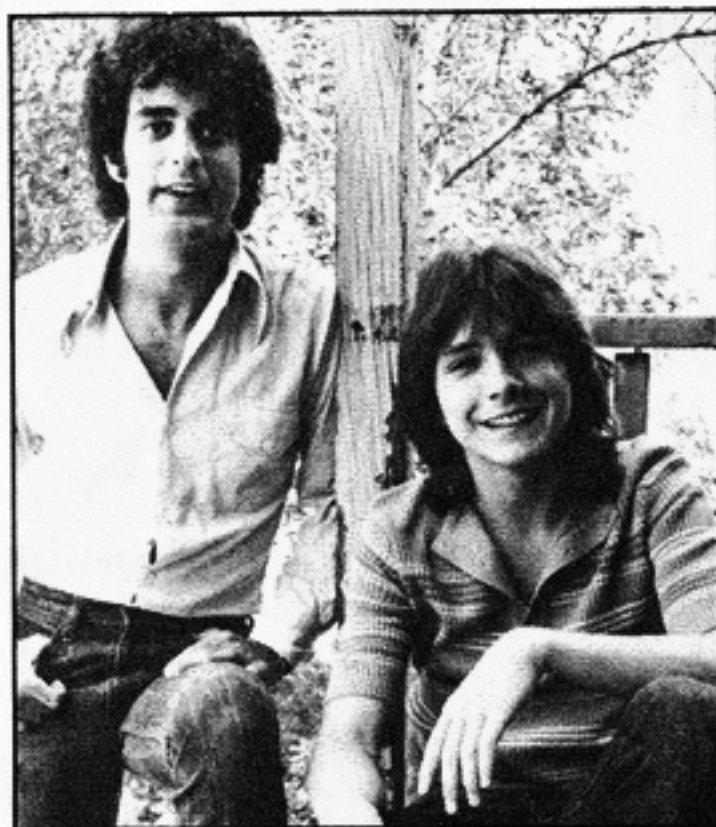

TRUTH: It sounds like your facts are a little twisted around. Donny was fine during the summer, but did undergo surgery for removal of his appendix in September of 1971. He's fully recovered now and hasn't been in the hospital since!

RUMOR: Please let me know if Michael Gray received the letters I've written him?

TRUTH: If you addressed your letters to Tiger Beat, FaVE, or Tiger Beat Spectacular, he most certainly did! On his many trips to our office, Michael makes it a point to pick up all of the mail he receives!

RUMOR: Your magazine states that Alan Osmond received his gold Cadillac on his 22nd birthday, and another magazine says he got it when he turned 21. Who's right?

TRUTH: We are right! On Alan's recent visit to the Tiger Beat Spectacular office, he assured us the car was a gift for his 22nd birthday.

SAM AND DAVID

RUMOR: My girlfriend told me that David Cassidy's roommate Sam writes a column for one of the Laufer Co. magazines. Which one is it? I'd love to see a copy!

TRUTH: Just march on down to your local newsstand and pick up an issue of Tiger Beat! Sam's column "Living With David," is in there! And, if you're a real Partridge fan, be sure to check out David and Susan's "Tell It Like It Is" column in Tiger Beat, too!

RUMOR: A few months back you stated that Barry Williams was hung-up on 7-Up and that David Cassidy preferred root beer! Isn't it the other way around?

TRUTH: Oops! It looks like our facts got a little mixed up! The truth is, 7-Up is David's favorite soft drink, but he also likes root beer from time to time. And Barry, who happens to be a root beer fanatic, said he also enjoys drinking 7-Up sometimes with his meals!
