

David's Magic

WHERE IS THE MORNING?

I can't sleep tonight
I found someone
You smiled at me and said
You were free
I was alone
Would we meet again.

You needn't have asked
I'll wait for you at dawn
If this night will only pass
But the clock hands
Refuse to move

It's dark inside my room
It must be daylight soon
Where is the morning?

I can't believe
All my dismay
Just had to pack and leave
When at last you looked my way
And so to bed
But not to sleep
It's only morning light

That will end
This watch I keep
But the stars shining
Cross the land
Don't seem to understand
How things get out of hand
Where is the morning?

But the clock hands
Refuse to move
It's dark inside my room
It must be daylight soon
Where is the morning?
Where is the morning?

WE COULD NEVER BE FRIENDS

I kind of die inside every time
You're with someone new
You need to be so free
So be free, but hey, free to me

Don't intend to be caught
In the end of a dream
Going down.

Love with a love like you

Now who needs a friend around
I'm tellin ya

I'm packing up my junk
In a trunk and I'm Leaving town
And I'm homeward bound.

Love, you and me we can
Never be friends
Never be friends
It's too unfriendly like
Love don't 'cha see we can
Never be friends
When we've been lovers
So long so long Hey!

Time after time I waste my time
Trying to be true to you.
Dime after dime I waste
My dime tryin' to get thru to you

Just to say Hey maybe today
We can start again
Just to see it all
Come fallin' apart again
I'm telling ya
I'm checkin' out
I doubt if we'll make it
Together again, ever again.
