FOR DONNY

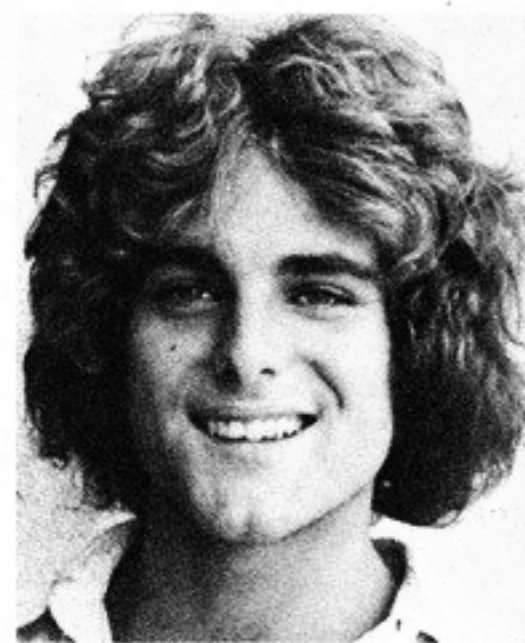

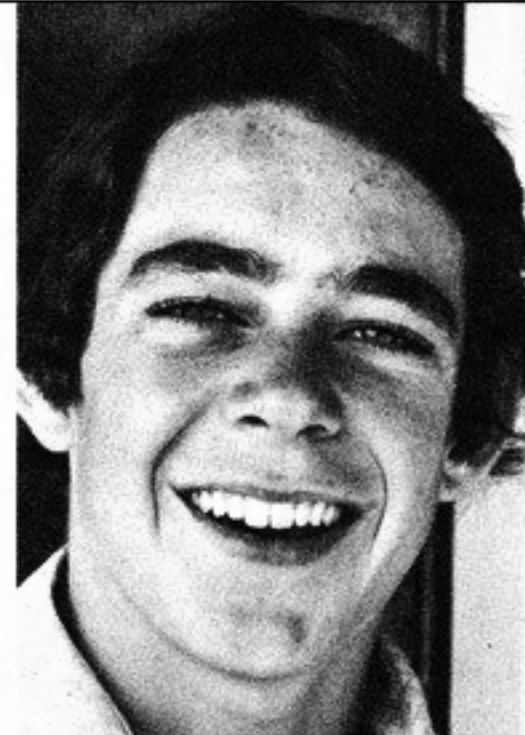

I won't mention the name, but someone said that the reason you are cutting singles on your own is because you are planning to leave the Osmonds and become a solo performer. Is this true? Nancy Haynes, Portland, Oregon.
Dear Nancy,

You can rest assured that I am not going to leave the group. I love working with my brothers and we all get along fine. It seems as though anytime a member of a group cuts his own single, immediately there is talk that he is planning on leaving the group and performing on his own. Well I have no intention of doing this, believe me. We all have needs which we have to fulfill and this is one of mine. Besides, my brothers are still in the background even though it's just my name on the record! I hope to continue for a long time as an Osmond Brother and I hope you'll continue to follow.

FOR DAVID

Please tell me what kind of shampoo you use and how you take care of your hair, it's so beautiful! Thanks, Trisha Yardley, Oakwood, Ohio.
Dear Trisha,

Thanks for the nice compliment. I wash my hair every day or every other day—might as well 'cause it gets wet anyway when I shower! If I don't have to go anywhere, I just comb my hair and let it dry naturally. Otherwise I blow it dry with a hand dryer. I use all kinds of shampoo. I don't have anyone in particular I like better than the others! Thanks for writing to me here at Tiger Beat Spectacular!

FOR BARRY

Are you treated any differently at home since you're a star? Also, what do you like doing most in your free time? Lois Coleman, Detroit, Mich.

Dear Lois,

No, I'm not treated like a celebrity at home, I'm just one of the family. When I have free time, you can be sure I'm involved with my favorite hobbies, my motorcycle and my horse.

FOR TODD CRESPI

I saw you on Room 222 and I adore you! I'd like to know how you felt when you found out you got the part on Room 222. Susan Ann Shipley, Moorehead, Minn.

Dear Susan,

I was so excited I couldn't sleep that night. It was really great doing the show and quite a thrilling experience! I hope you enjoyed the show, too, and I'd love hearing from you again!

FOR MAUREN

Do you like to see yourself on television? Also, are you very critical about yourself as far as your acting? Linda Key, Salem, Mass.

Dear Linda,

I like to see myself and then again I don't. I always feel sort of uneasy when I watch my own acting, especially if the rest of my family is there too. I guess I'm pretty critical about myself, but then I think every performer is. I like to hear other people's opinions about my work, too, so let me know what you think, will you?
