

THE GIRL DAVID CAN'T FORGET

David's bitter sweet memories of a certain special night keep him from falling in love

(Above) David with Susan Dey, Dave Madden and Shirley Jones. (Below) David, surrounded by a group of his fans, who are on the scene wherever he goes these days.

■ In spite of his busy schedule, David Cassidy finds time for dating, like any other boy his age. And many of his fans have asked: Isn't there one special girl for David? Hasn't he found a girl he can really love?

David, when asked by friends why he isn't going steady, usually puts them off by saying that he doesn't really have the time to get involved with any one girl in a serious way. There is a lot of truth in this answer, of course.

Shooting schedules for "The Part-ridge Family" keep him very busy, and then there are personal appearances, song-writing and the hours of rehearsal time. No, David doesn't have a lot of leisure. "I don't think it would be fair to a girl to tie her down right now," David says. "That's one reason I don't go steady."

Then there are his plans for the future. Even though many young stars would be happy to be in David's place, would be more than satisfied with his popularity and success, David has big plans for the future. He wants to have his own recording studio some day, and also dreams about producing films. There's no doubt he has the talent and drive to make his dream

(Continued on page 60)

