DEAR READERS:

I want to thank each and every one of you for your thoughtful letters. I love reading each and every one of them. Time and space make it impossible for me to answer each one personally, but your likes and dislikes and your opinions are given careful consideration here at Tiger Beat. Whenever you have a suggestion, a criticism or just want to sound off about something, drop me a note. I love hearing from you!

Ann Moses,
 Editor

Dear Ann,

I recently read in your magazine about Bobby Sherman's plea for the youth of America to join together in fighting cancer. Bobby is giving us a chance to do something worthwhile, so don't turn it down! This is a cause in which we can all unite to accomplish something important. Please give us the address.

Dear Pam,

The address for contributions is The Bobby Sherman Cancer Fund of Concern Foundation, P.O. Box 3121, Los Angeles, Ca. 90051.

OSMOND POWER

My girlfriend and I just finished OSMONDIZING my bedroom with pictures of Donny and his brothers. Keep putting in more groovy pics of them in TIGER BEAT so that I can add to my collection!

JUST NOT FAIR

I subscribe to TIGER BEAT and the first thing I read when I receive your magazine is Tiger Talk. I find myself disgusted with some of the kids who write in something like "I love Bobby, and I hate David Cassidy." Then another girl writes back "It's unfair to cut down anyone, especially David Cassidy. But I can't help myself—Bobby is an ugly creep!" What are these girls trying to prove? I'm sure they mean well by sticking up for their faves, but they do not have to put down someone else just to make their favorite look better. Everyone in TIGER BEAT has to be talented, or else they wouldn't be there, right? I think all the people written about in your magazine are very warm and generous. So why not try loving everyone for a change? It's a groove!

DELIGHTFUL DONNY

There's an old saying that goes "Good things come in small packages." Well, in my opinion, Donny Osmond is a small package, but he sure is a good thing!

BONGO BEAT

I love Donny, Bobby S. and Michael G. But when I first saw Michael Gray my heart started to pound like drums. He's cute and adorable. Mmmm—I just love him. Beware—he's mine. Keep off!

A MILLION THANKS

For a long time I've wanted to tell you thanks for every issue of all the wonderful magazines you've put out. The lay-out is fantastic; so is the printing, editing and everything else that goes into it. When it comes to your magazine I have no complaints! I'm sure your other readers agree!

BRAND NEW CONTEST

When I read about your "Be Adopted By the Osmonds" contest, I came up with another idea! I call it the "Be Adopted by Leslie" contest, and the five guys to win it should be Donny, Jay, Merrill, Wayne and Alan! Please tell them that whenever they're around Chicago they can have their prize. The invitation is waiting for them!

BIRTHDAYS EVERY MONTH!

Thank you, thank you, thank you! Thanks for being my favorite magazine. You never have any flashy, misleading headlines on the cover and you always print the truth. I received a subscription to your magazine for my birthday and it's like getting a present every month. It comes in a protective plastic cover, and arrives safe and sound every time. Bless you, and keep up the good work!

Dear Joy,

Thanks for your nice letter—we're glad that you subscribed! If others are interested in receiving TIGER BEAT monthly, be sure to send in your subscription today! A gift of your choice is in store! See page 33.

Dear Ann,

Help! I need an answer to my poem titled "The Question." It goes as follows:

It started out with four of them
 The world knew they were alive.
 Then Donny Osmond came along
 And changed the four to five.

"One Bad Apple" was their first
 To reach number one on the charts
 Then "Sweet and Innocent" came out
 To tug at and melt our hearts.

We heard "Double Lovin'" next
 But people's thoughts had ranged.
 Oh, would the Osmonds still be tops
 When Donny's voice had changed?

We love them here in Canada,
 But our minds are in a fix.
 Will Jimmy Osmond be the one
 Who'll change the five to six?

LET'S HAVE MORE

TIGER BEAT doesn't print very much on Michael Gray—at least, in my opinion! I read your running story on Michael written by himself and really loved it. He's so cute too! His green eyes are simply beautiful! Please write more about Michael, and run more pictures too!

GRAND SLAM!

Every time I get up to bat in baseball, I think of David Cassidy. If I don't, I strike out. But if I do, I hit home runs every time! David, you're the greatest! Anyone agree?
