

Let's Tour With David

David's living proof that it's not so much what you wear as how you wear it! Anyway, you should have seen the look on the faces of some of the big executives the first time they caught a glimpse of David!

One of our favorite "fun-trips" was when we were in San Diego. We more or less sneaked away from all the activity that always surrounds David and went to the zoo!

It was really super. The animals are in these neat enclosures, so they never have to be behind bars, and some of them do terrifically funny things!

David laughed until he cried when he saw one huge black bear whose favorite trick was rolling around on the ground holding his head like he had a terrible headache!

And there's a chimpanzee who came strolling out of his little cave, looked straight at David, and blew an enormous pink bubble with his bubble gum! David couldn't believe it!

And by that time there were a bunch of David's fans around who couldn't believe it was David! We were held up for quite a while signing autographs before we could get away to go back to the theatre! David never minds that—he loves it!

But those kids learned something—that you can never tell where you'll see your favorite star! David, for example, is always trying to get away for a few hours—in almost every single town we visit there's something he's heard about and wants to see, or there's a friend living there, and he usually gets out during the afternoon. If David Cassidy ever plays in your town—keep your eyes open!

That's it for this month, so keep those letters coming in and keep yourself together till next month!

Love,

Kim & Dave

MEETING FANS like Augusta, is something that makes David happy!

Dear Kim and Dave,

Is it true that a doctor told David he'd have to cut down on his touring or he'd lose his voice?

Ellie Rabb
Paris, Ky.

Dear Ellie,

Where did you hear that? No, it isn't true. David has a little problem with hoarseness from time to time when he's working too hard, but a cup of tea with honey and lemon in it and a day's rest set him right back up again!

Dear Kim and Dave,

Is David still into photography as much as he used to be? Also, what does he like to take picture of? Does he ever photograph fans?

Marcia Pierce
Reseda, Calif.

Dear Marcia,

David never stops taking pictures! He's always running up and down the aisles of the plane, snapping pictures of everybody as they chat or look out the window or work on their music! His favorite subjects are people and nature—and yes, he's taken hundreds of photographs of fans! Some of them are hanging in his room!

Dear Kim and Dave,

Doesn't David ever get impatient with his fans? It must be hard for him to get anyplace without spending an hour signing autographs!

Susannah Parks
Augusta, Ga.

Dear Susannah,

The only time David ever gets impatient is when he's going to be late for a show—and that's only because there are more fans waiting to see that show than there are asking for autographs! He loves to be close to his fans! After all, he'll be grateful to them as long as he lives!

Dear Kim and Dave,

What does David like to do best—the TV show, recording, or concerts?

Mikki Sujata
Roslyn, New York

Dear Mikki,

That's a tough one! Let's see—we think he likes concerts best because his fans are right there! It'd be hard to decide whether he likes recording better than acting on TV, though—probably he likes them about the same. The trouble is, there's nothing he can't do!

Well, that's it for this month, but if you've got a question you'd like to ask us, send it along to KIM AND DAVE, Partridge Family Magazine, 7060 Hollywood Blvd., Suite 800, Hollywood, Calif. 90028. We'll try to answer every one we can—right here in our column! See you then!
