

Making homemade ice cream and having it turn out so delicious I can invite all my friends over to have a mini-party with ice cream and chocolate chip cookies!

A cool, tall bubbling glass of 7-Up over ice!

Knowing that summer will soon be here and that means spending more time with YOU because you won't have to be in school every day!

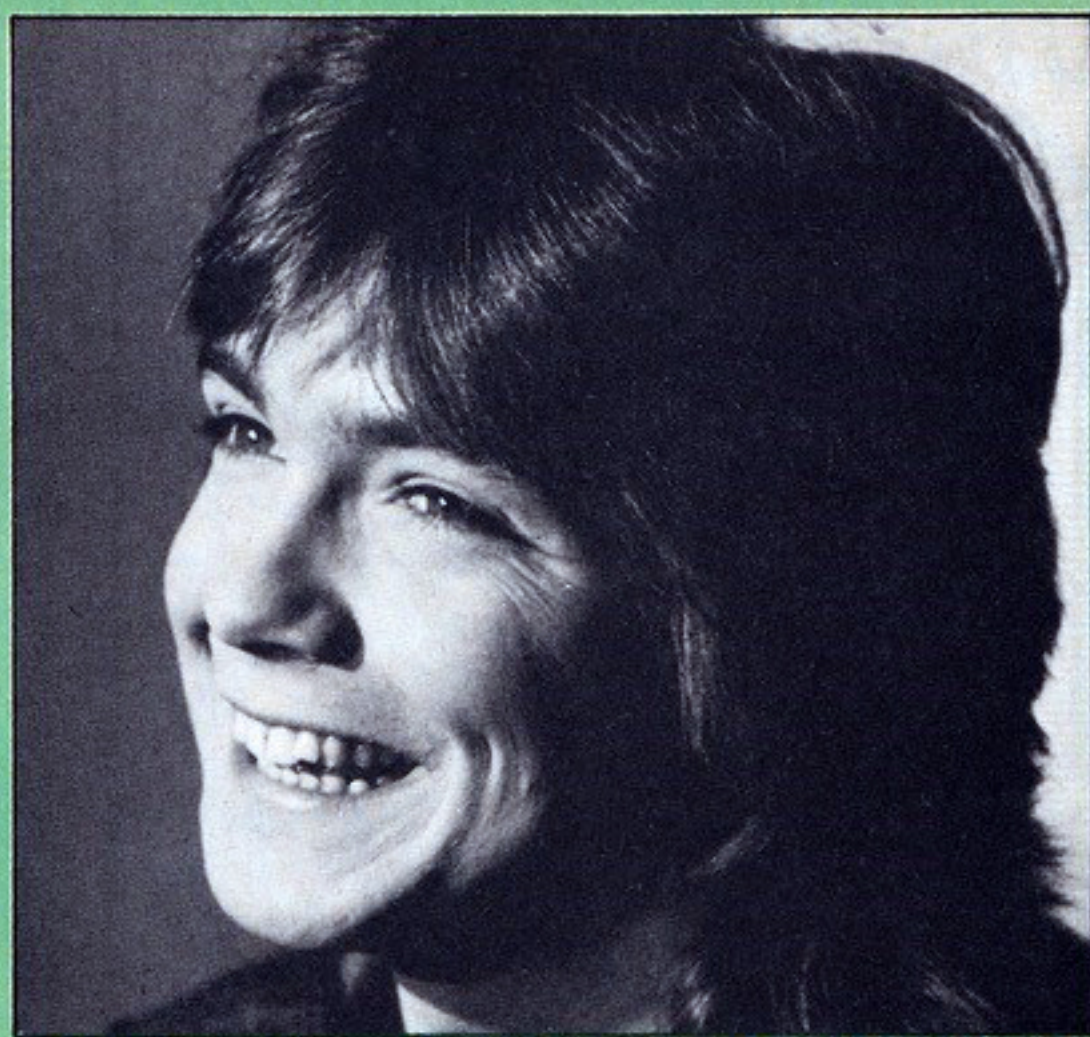

Taking a walk along the beach on the wet shore and feeling the mud between my toes.

Watching you try to fly a kite when there's really not enough wind to get it off the ground!

Going to a rock-concert in a park outside and finding everybody there is filled with love!

Being all moved into my new house and having time to enjoy it!

Getting a letter from you talking about all YOUR Springtime Joys!

Turning around one day at Columbia Ranch to find you standing right behind me!

Going for a long bicycle ride through Malibu Canyon with only the wind as company!

Finishing filming half a day early and being able to start my weekend earlier!

Giving a concert and finding YOU right there in the very front row of the audience.

Finding time to go horseback riding in a quiet place where I can feel free and alive galloping along a trail with the horse's mane blowing into my face!

Playing tag in the park with Sheesh!

Longer days which mean I can stay outside and enjoy the evening before it really gets dark like in the winter!

Being caught in a sudden spring shower, as long as I'm with you.

David's Springtime Joys!
