

Guys Really Talk About

"Well, Danny, it's hard to explain. I think sometimes they just forget that actors are only people too! But what's nice is that all our real fans do understand! When I think about that — everything's fine."

"David, what are you thinking about?"
"Mostly what I always think about because it makes me smile so much! About the girl I hope to find!"

"Don't worry Danny! I'm as nervous as you. I always wonder if the girl I'm going out with likes me! I'm glad we're double dating!"

"I'll tell you David, I think you'd better practice your acting. It doesn't look at all like a handsome young star you're trying to impersonate—you look more like Frankenstein—ha, ha, ha!"

"You're right Danny. Sometimes waiting for that special girl to come into your life makes you feel very sad and lonely. Do you think if I stand on the roof and call loudly to her, she'll answer me? It would make my life complete to find and love her."
