David's grandfather came in from New Jersey to be with his famous grandson on this special day!

David pauses to have a quiet word with his mother, Evelyn Ward.

But David's not forgetting you for an instant—he opens and admires all the gifts and cards you send backstage, and he loves you for being so thoughtful!
