Flipflap

Dear FLIP,

Please print this letter, and I can only hope Donny will read it. I want to thank him for teaching me how to throw a football. In the June issue of FLIP he had absolutely beautiful color pictures, one of which showed him fixing to throw a football. Well, I had gotten disgusted because up till then I threw the ball all wobbly. Now, thanks to Donny and the picture, my throwing is straighter. Thanks, Donny, you're really gr-r-reat! Sharon, Denton, N.C.

Dear FLIP,

I'm crazy about Donny Osmond, and when I take up my FLIP Magazine, I just stare and stare at his cute face. (How can anybody be so cute?!) Will there be any contest soon where some lucky person can win a visit with Donny? Laura Knight, Baltimore, Md.

Check out FLIP's Superstars Annual, which goes on sale June 29th at your fav newsstand! It's got the exciting Donny contest you're dreamin' of!

Dear FLIP,

Thanks very much for the piggyback posters of Donny Osmond. Every time I wake up in the morning I'm surrounded by Donny! Please put more posters of Donny in FLIP. Thanks for reading! Leticia Hernandez, Berino, N.M.

Dear FLIP,

I just thought I'd write and tell your readers what a beautiful person Donny Osmond is! Recently he called up our local radio station all the way from Caesars Palace in Las Vegas, as he promised he would. Donny was so nice and friendly, and he answered some questions, too! Donny is so cute, his voice is much deeper now. He said that he really would try to get out to the Hartford, Conn. area with his brothers this summer, and he was so sincere as he said this! Please keep up your great work on Donny and the Osmonds, because the #1 magazine should keep up with the #1 group! Donny Lover, New Britain, Conn.

Dear FLIP,

I am 16 years old and I am about to fall apart about Alan Osmond. I love him so much, so please can you put a big color poster of him in FLIP? Irene Romero, Dallas, Texas

Dear FLIP,

This letter is for the girl in May Flipflap who said of Jay Osmond, "I think he's better than any boy I know." What do you mean, you think he's better? I don't know any of the boys you know, but out of all the boys I know, no one even comes close to Jay. He's one in a million, and I love him! Jay Lover, Salinas, Calif.

Dear FLIP,

Everybody's telling you how great the Osmonds were in New York, Los Angeles, etc. But just wait till I tell you about their concert in Toronto. Now that's something I will never forget! At about 9:35 that night the lights went out and a recorded heartbeat was played. Then suddenly the stage lights sprang on, and there they were! The girls in the first 15 rows all stood up, screaming their heads off. People were throwing stuffed toys, packages, etc. onto the stage, and the boys would pick them up and put them somewhere, so they wouldn't get stepped on. And that's how it went till 11:00, when Alan announced that he and his brothers loved us, and if it was okay with us, they would like to come to Canada again next year. All right! The girls were yelling yes, yes, and the Osmonds had grins on their faces you could see a mile away! The ticket I bought cost me six bucks, but it was worth every cent! Denise Martin, Toronto, Ont.

Dear FLIP,

This is in response to a letter you printed in the May issue of FLIP. A girl named Ruthie Baum wrote that she went to the concert the Osmonds did in Kansas City and that she made friends with a girl who sat in front of her, who gave her some flashbulbs. Well, I'm the girl who gave her the flashbulbs, and Ruthie, if you're reading this I sure would like to hear from you and your friends who were with you at the concert. So please write to me! Osmond fans, stick with FLIP—it's the best! Kathy Priest, 2625 Sunset Rd., Topeka, Kansas 66614

Dear FLIP,

I want to congratulate the marvelous Osmonds for their fantastic performance at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas. My mom and dad used to think the Osmonds were a bunch of hippies on the stage, making goo-goo eyes at the girls. At first they wouldn't even let me go to see them. Well, after that
