

performance, WOW! Were my parents changed! They like the Osmonds almost as much as I do! Debbie Haen, Las Vegas, Nev.

Dear FLIP,

On Saturday, March 11 I went to the David Cassidy concert here at Madison Square Garden. I can't tell you how great he really was. The nice things David said made the entire audience warm up to him. And one really nice thing he did was while he was singing "Cherish." Somehow, a girl managed to jump on the stage. She ran over to him and kissed him on the cheek. Just as she was going to go back to her seat, David grabbed her hand and kissed her back. Though the guard came up on the stage to get her off, I think that was really nice of him to do. And it must have been very exciting for the girl! All in all, it was a great afternoon. Stephanie Del Valle, Bronx, N.Y.

Dear FLIP,

I couldn't stand it any longer. I just had to write and express my feelings for David Cassidy. I love, love, love David! He's the greatest! And I really dig his singing and The Partridge Family. I would croak a million zillion times if The Partridge Family were taken off the air, but I know it won't be, because it's got everything going for it—David Cassidy! Hang in there, David, we all love and believe in you! Barbara Castille, Port Arthur, Texas

Dear FLIP,

I want to thank David Cassidy for making me the happiest girl in all the world. I went to see him in Macon, Georgia and he shook my hand. I told some of the girls at school about it, and they thought it was crazy for me to like someone as much as I like David at my age (13). Do you think 13-year-olds are too young to like David? I sure don't. He's so nice, sweet and good looking that even my little sister likes him, and my mother. I don't think anyone is too young, or old, for that matter, to like someone so nice! Melanie Jane Bartlett, Millen, Ga.

Dear FLIP,

I just saw the David Cassidy concert in Knoxville. I really got my money's worth! In spite of all the yelling girls, I loved it! I really think it was the best night I ever had! Sally Gideon, Kingsport, Tenn.

Dear FLIP,

In your March issue of FLIP, a girl named Debi wrote to Flipflap and said that David Cassidy sings "Cherish" ten times better than the Association. This is her opinion, and she has her right to it, but I'd just like to remind her that the lead singer of the Association, Terry Kirkman, wrote "Cherish," and if it weren't for him, David Cassidy never could have sung it! R.B., Milwaukee, Wisc.

Dear FLIP,

Please print more of beautiful Bobby Sherman in your mag! Who else but Bobby would start a cancer fund? That shows Bobby's concern for others. Most other teen idols are just concerned for themselves! Bobby 4-Ever, Indianapolis, Ind.

Dear FLIP,

Just a word to say thank you for all the gorgeous pictures and articles on all the favs you have every month . . . I wouldn't miss an issue, and most of the time I buy two copies, so I can have the pictures on both sides of the pages. While I love them all, my very special favorite is Bobby Sherman. I would like for you to give him a message for me. Tell him that I saw him on Mod Squad as Jimmy and on Cade's County as Nicky, and I just absolutely adored both shows. This should really prove to everyone what a wonderful actor he is, and I hope that means we will be seeing more and more of him. Anne K., Duggins, Evansville, Ind.

Dear FLIP,

I just want to say how great your magazine is. I love, love, love Michael Cole, and you are the only magazine that has a story about Mike or the Mod Squad almost every month. I think other Mike Cole fans feel the same way. So thanks and double thanks for being so great! You'll always be number one with me! Mike Cole Lover, Scranton, Pa.

Dear FLIP,

Just a note of thanks for the lovely section (May) "Your Pete Duel Memory Scrapbook." It was a great way to help his many fans to remember him as the very handsome, warm, loving, talented person he was. I had the pleasure and privilege of seeing him onstage at the Municipal Auditorium here in Birmingham, Alabama, when he and Ben were guests at the 1971 Annual Cerebral Palsy Telethon. It was beautiful seeing him holding the little handicapped children, the love showing radiant from his eyes. I can't explain the shock and sorrow I felt when I heard of Pete's death just three months after that September Telethon. Pete was a handsome man, a loving person, a talented actor, a joy to all. Linda Vines, Adger, Ala.

Dear FLIP,

I just arrived home from school, and when I saw your May issue, I quickly picked it up. Thank you ever so much for dedicating a few pages of FLIP to one of the greatest actors of our time, Peter Duel, may he rest in peace. Your article gave me renewed strength in my opinion that FLIP is really a great magazine. A few months ago I wrote a letter expressing my wish for you to dedicate FLIP to the memory of Peter Duel, and you have not failed me. Adina Sullum, Kingston, Pa.

Dear FLIP,

In the May issue of FLIP, in the Pete Duel Memory Scrapbook, I noticed all the letters that were printed were from the States only. During Pete's short life, he captured the hearts of many people from all over the world, including Canadians. Alias Smith and Jones has become a great hit everywhere. Pete's sudden and tragic death has shocked many Canadians, and has broken their hearts. But no matter how hard we try, he will never return to us. A Caring Canadian, Brooklin, Ont.

Dear FLIP,

Our class took a poll for the most popular actor and, to my happiness, Pete Duel won hands down. I haven't known Pete for too long. I first saw him on Alias Smith and Jones this fall. I fell in love with him just by seeing that one show. His death shattered me completely. But I'd like to thank Roger Davis for doing such a good job on the show. It must be hard to follow up such a talented guy. I'd also like to thank you, FLIP, for printing so much about Pete Duel. The other magazines just seemed to drop him off their lists and forget all about him. But you really help. Thanks. Pete Duel Fan, Parkersburg, West Va.

Flip flash!

Dennis Provisor is leaving the Grassroots! That's the word we got just as this issue was going to press. But next month in FLIP you'll meet the two handsome guys who are replacing Dennis in the group—and Dennis will tell you about his future plans. It's all in the September issue of FLIP, on sale July 11th!
