

David Cassidy Crushed!

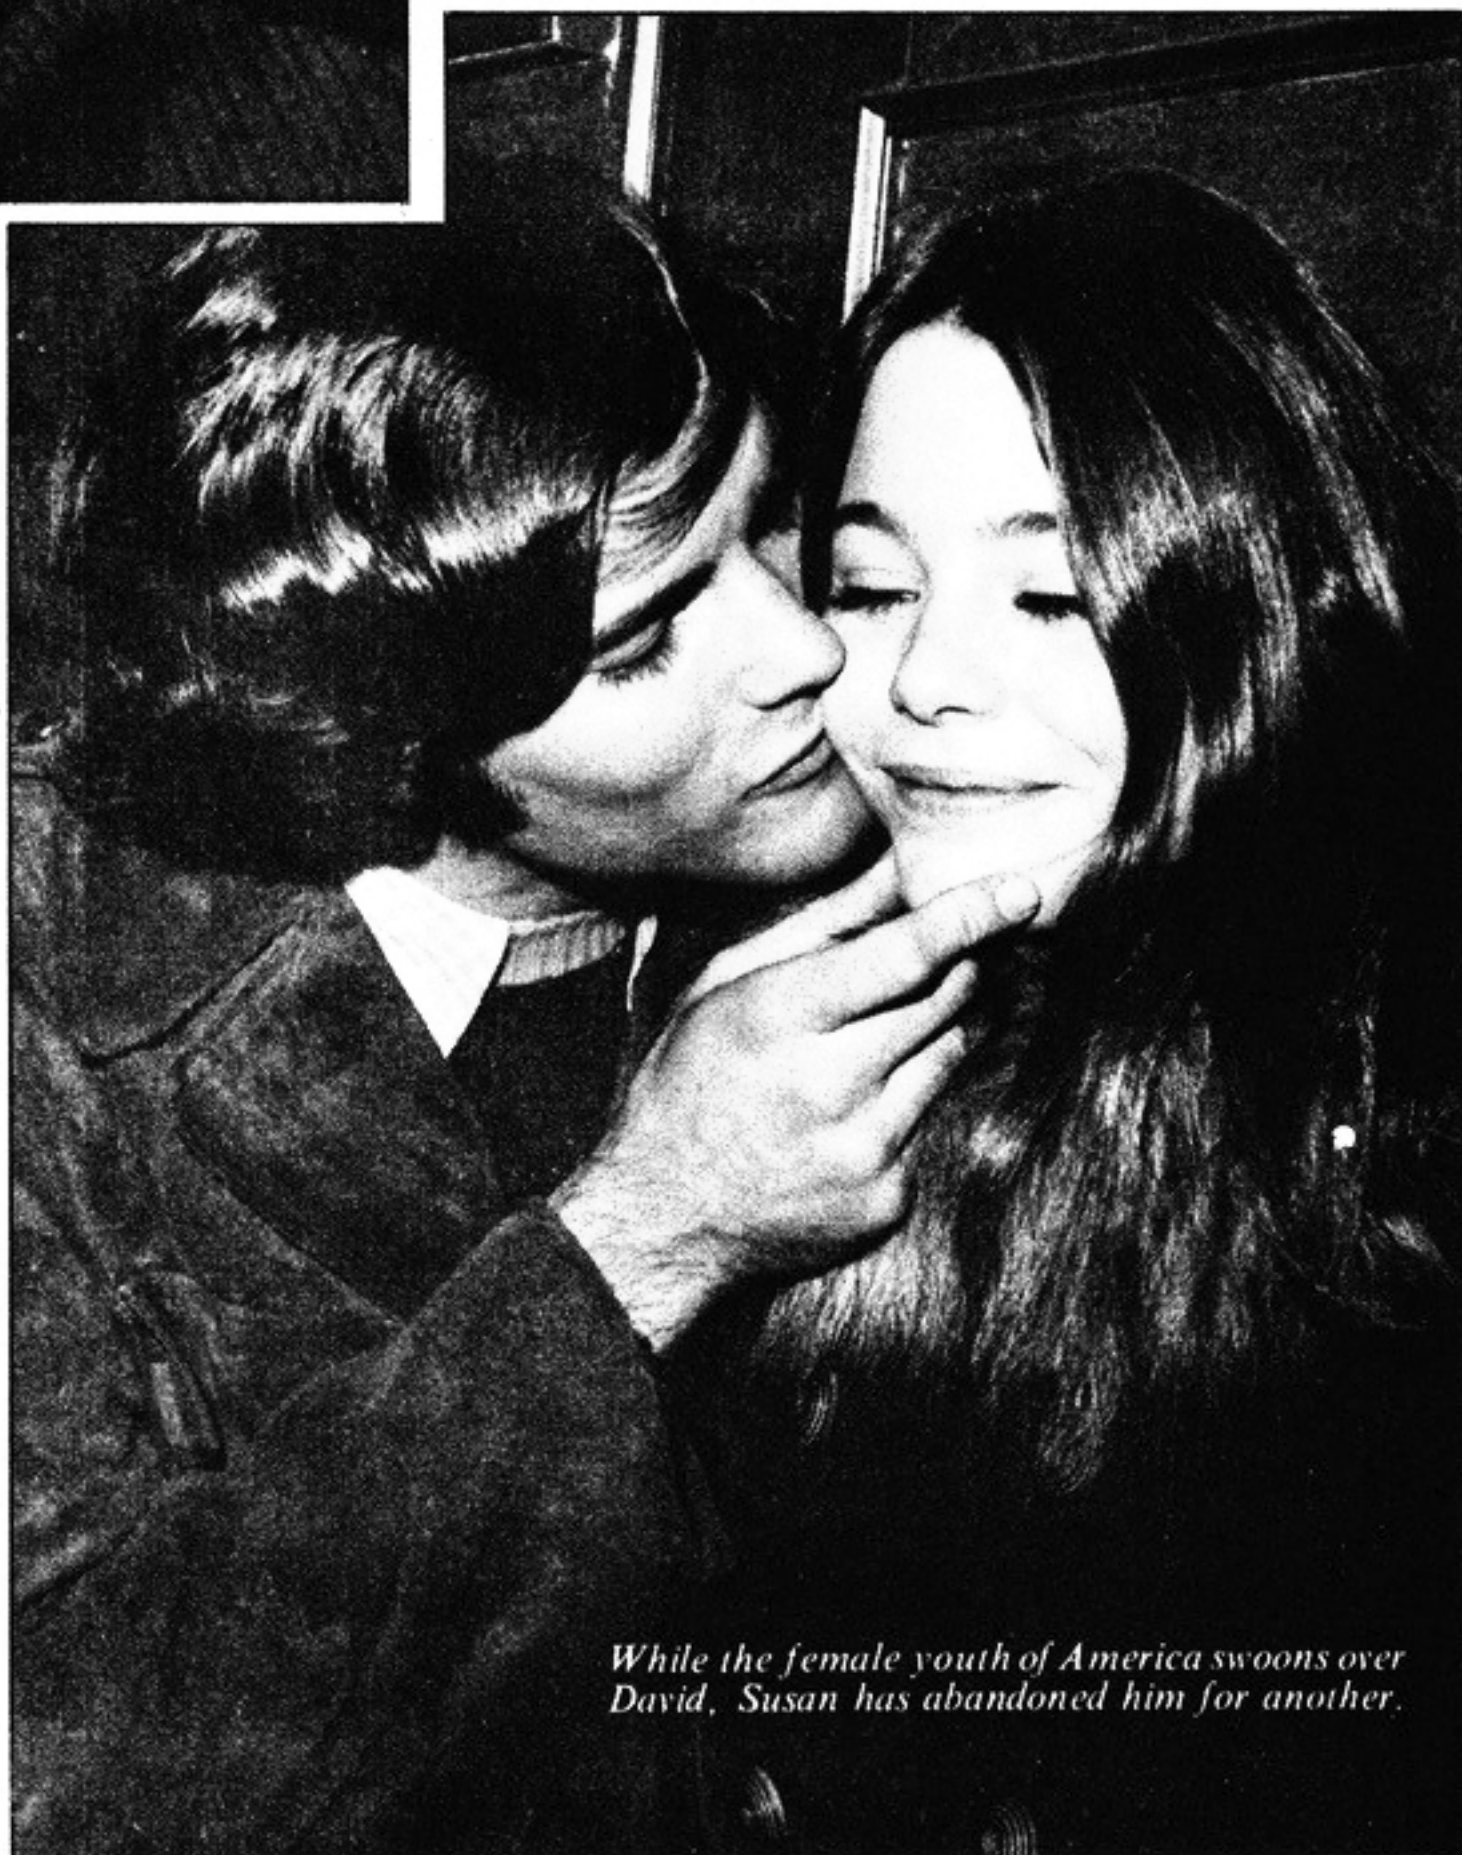

Susan Dey To Wed Hollywood Producer

By THEODORE BLACK

■ "David Cassidy is the all-time favorite of all my girlfriends and me. I really love the way he sings. He makes me feel all gooey inside! If I ever met him it would be the most wonderful day of my whole life—but stupid me would probably just faint. Sometimes, just before I go to bed at night, I pretend to myself that he's my boyfriend. And, if I'm lucky, he's in my dreams, too!" —Sue Lynn Milkhouse, Sharon, Pennsylvania, thirteen years old.

And Robyn Millan, a twenty-two-year-old actress who has dated David: "David is the greatest. He's just marvelous and really knows how to handle his success. I really never expected him to be so dynamic. The other day, when I visited him on the set, there were a half-dozen girls waiting to tell me how lucky I am."

David Cassidy, handsome, talented and successful, is the heartthrob of millions of gals between the ages of six and sixty-five. Those who have never met him wish fervently they could; those who have, never quite get over him. He is (Continued on page 82)

While the female youth of America swoons over David, Susan has abandoned him for another.
