

DAVID CASSIDY poses NUDE!

A Teenage Idol Cuts Loose!

■ It could have been titled, "The David Cassidy Nobody Knows." In a recent issue of the magazine "Rolling Stone," David not only posed in the nude, but granted an interview which revealed that he is not exactly the all-American boy the teenage world embraces. In high school, David admitted, he stole a few bicycles "for kicks," and did some experimenting with marijuana, speed and LSD. But have no fear; he now says he's off that stuff and is living the clean life again. ●
