

OF COURSE, HIS very favorite gift was his new cuddly puppy, Kula, given to him by his roommate, Sam!

IT SEEMED AS though incense came in by the ton for David's twenty-second birthday, and he loved it all!

KULA WAS JUST a puppy when David celebrated his birthday, but you almost wouldn't recognize her now 'cause she's grown so fast! Already David says she's "into everything," but it's really very cute!

HERE'S SAM NOW with David's good friend, Al Rhodes, to help join in the fun! After the party was over, everybody was making a mad dash to David's car to help load all his gifts! The party was lots of fun for all!

HAPPINESS JUST GLEAMED in David's eyes after he opened up the present given to him by all the Laufer Co. staff members! It was a huge color portrait of his new puppy Kula, and it came as a real surprise!

CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE