

"THE GIRL I SING

TO" by david

"My favorite thing about her is the way she makes me feel! From day to day I never know what to expect! This bubbly, bright and groovy chick is enough to turn any guy's head, especially mine!

She's groovy, and into things like having patches all over her jeans, but you can bet she was the first girl in town to do it! That's because she's a leader, not a follower. She's not afraid to be first, and if once in a moon her idea falls flat, she's the first to laugh! Once a fad takes off so that everybody looks the same, she's way ahead dreaming up something else.

But this doesn't mean that all she thinks about is impressing you and me. Her friends will tell you that she's the girl they tell all their troubles to, 'cuz she knows the greatest secret of being loveable there is: listening! And because she really and truly digs people, she's always there to try and help things come out right for them!

Her feelings are just beneath the surface. When she cries, the tears flow in gallons; when she smiles, it's like a beautiful rainbow coming out after a storm. This alive and wonderful girl knows how I feel without my saying a thing! She can get me up when I'm down better than anyone else in the world, because she understands me!

There's a secret side to her too. She writes poetry or paints pictures that nobody is allowed to see. That's okay with me—it adds a bit of mystery to her that makes me appreciate her more.

She's a million different girls wrapped up into one special human being. I guess that's why I love her so much!"
