

DAVID JUST TALKIN'!

"Now that I've discovered skiing, I wonder why I didn't try it sooner! Even though I started late, I still dream what it would be like to be a real ski champion! But even if I can't get that far I'm going to keep at it until I get as good as I can possibly be!"

"I dream about falling in love — the kind of deep, meaningful, passionate love that books are written about! I haven't found it yet (you'd be the first to know!) but I'm sure looking!"

"I know the Beatles are no more, but their music will live on forever. I've often wished for the opportunity to do a concert with them."

"Although I love to be around lots of people, there are times I yearn to have a special place where I can get away from it all for a while. I guess all of us need to be alone once in a while to recharge our batteries. My place would be built on the side of a hill with a view from every window looking down on trees and maybe a lake."
